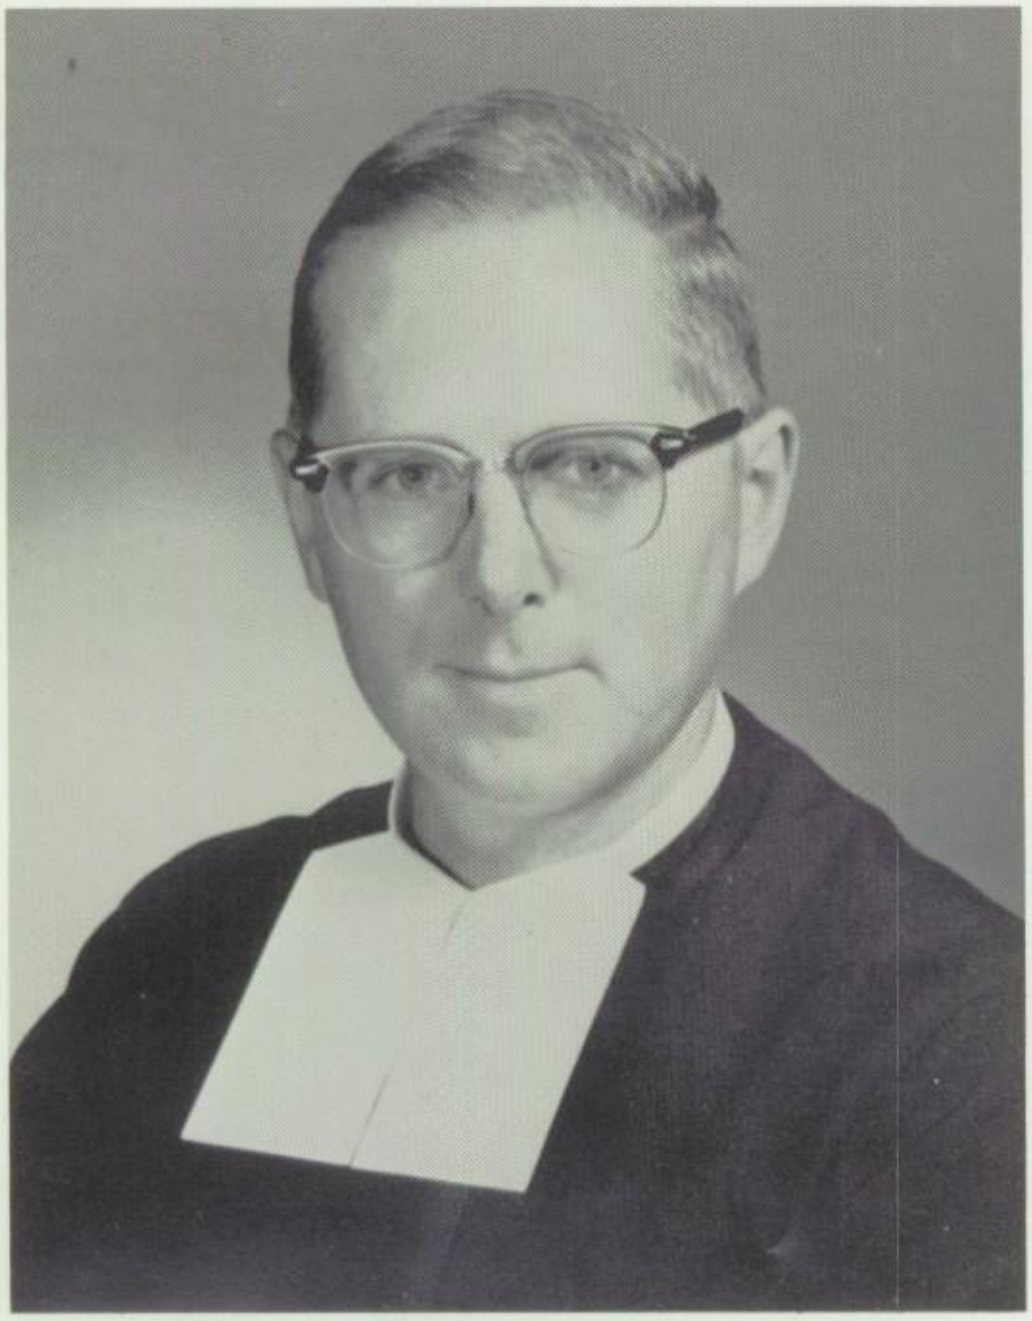
Administrators

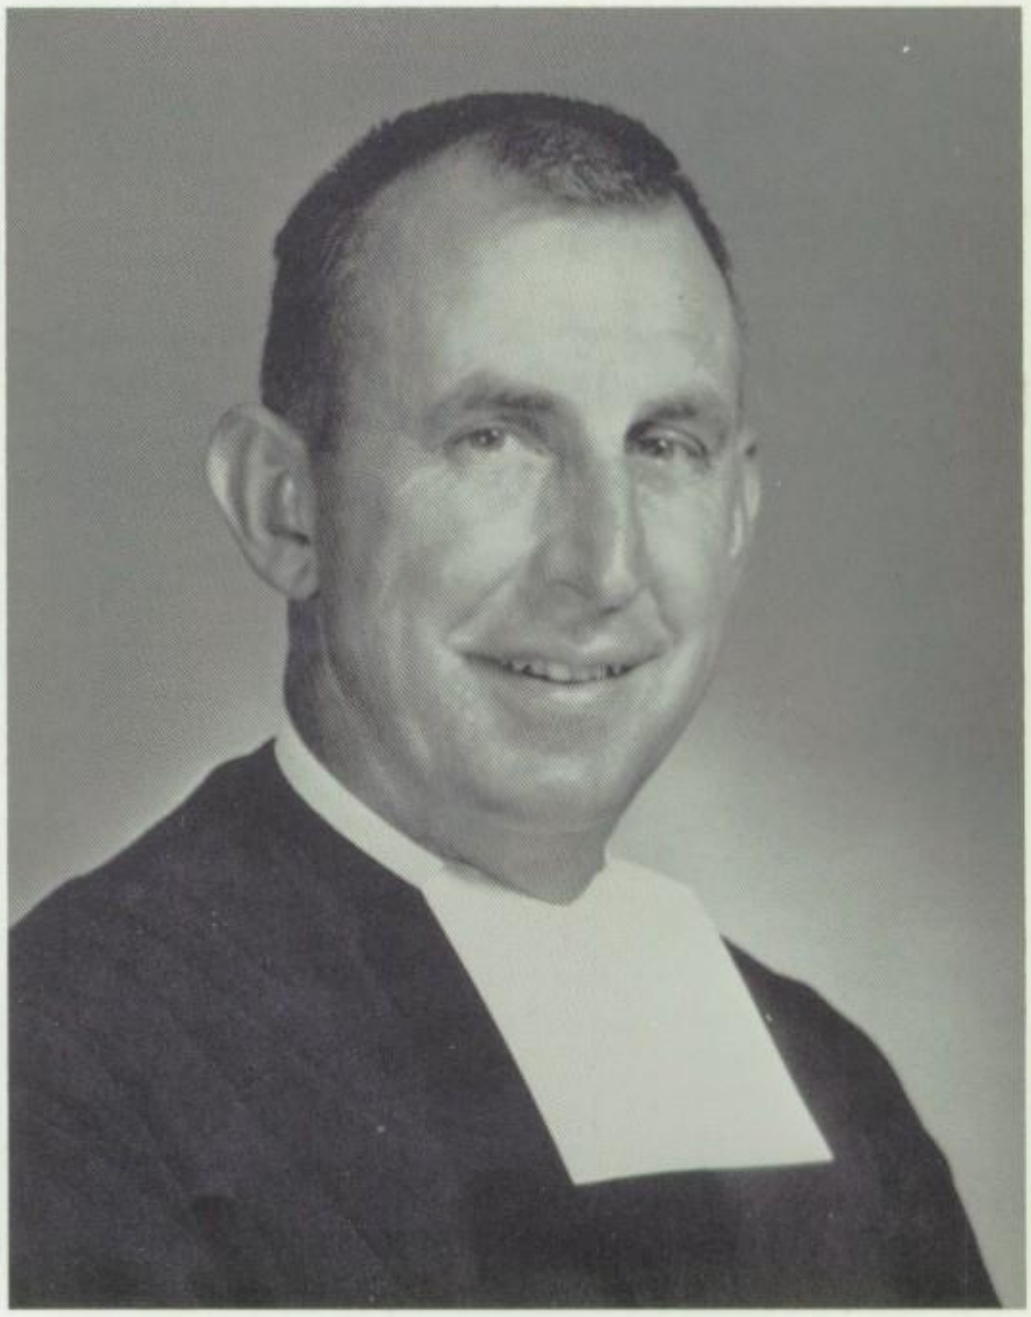


Brother I. Alfred, F.S.C.

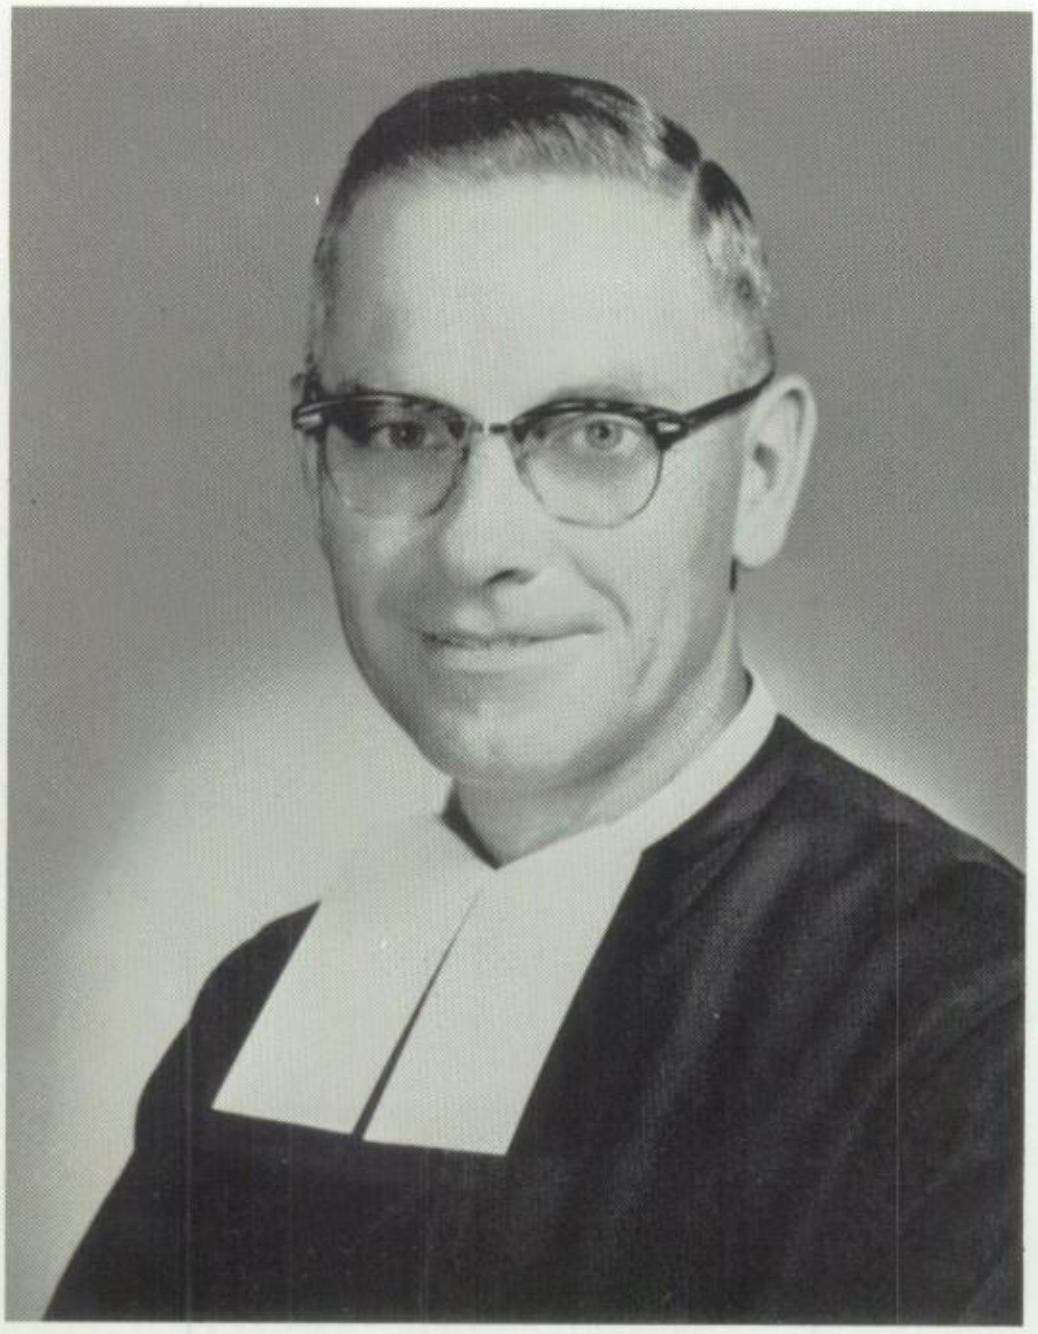
Brother Alfred served as Kelley's first director from September, 1960, until January 24, 1964. During his three and one-half years at Bishop Kelley High School, he showed a deep interest in the school and gave freely of his time to improve educational facilities and the curriculum.

The faculty and students are grateful to Brother Alfred for his devotion and kindness and wish him much success in his new position as director of St. Mel's in Chicago.

Brother K. Bernardine served as sub-director and principal of boys since the opening of Kelley in 1960. This year, at the semester break, he became director of Bishop Kelley High School, replacing Brother Alfred. Brother Bernardine has given unstintingly of his time and effort for the physical and educational welfare of both teachers and students. In addition to his many duties as an administrator, he has continued his duties as head of the mathematics department and promoter of the Kelley beautification project.



Brother K. Bernardine, F.S.C.



Brother H. Thomas, F.S.C.

Principals

The most important things a senior should have learned are how to study, how to organize, how to educate and re-educate himself. Actually, it is not so much the education that counts; it's the self-re-education, the discipline that keeps him driving toward goals and values he believes in. No one is here by accident. Any progress, success, or happiness will be based upon finding the answers to "Why am I here?" and "What can I best do and be in order to fulfill this reason?" Any future success is predicated upon what he does about these answers.

Brother H. Thomas,

Yes, "what he does about the answers." (See Brother Thomas.) From here it looks clear, doesn't it? But from the college dorm or the office desk, the hospital bed or the kitchen stove, situations are colored by a different light. Those will be the tests that will prove the answer to the question that many people are asking today: "Are Catholic schools worth it to pupils, parents, teachers, and pastors?" You will make these evident by what you do. We will be waiting to see.

Rev. Robert Schlitt
Chaplain and Counselor

Bishop Kelley High School is blessed with the loyal support of the priests of Oklahoma. Working behind the scenes in an advisory capacity is Father Ernest Flusche, superintendent of the Oklahoma Catholic school system. Monsignor Reid, rector of Holy Family Cathedral and head of the Tulsa deanery, is chairman of the school board of Tulsa pastors, who cooperate with the school officials in the financial management of the school.

Kelley's chaplain and counselor, Father Bob, is a true friend of every boy and girl at Kelley. They will be eternally indebted to him for his spiritual and educational guidance, his understanding, and love.

The Crest Staff of 1964

presents

The pictures on these pages reflect an idea—an idea which is based on the premise that academic and social life is greatly influenced by the seasons. Therefore, we have decided to arrange the activities and happenings of the entire school year in chronological order and to divide them into the seasons into which they naturally fall. For those topics that do not clearly fall into a seasonal division, we have included a section appropriately called the "Year 'Round." Thus, faculty, classes, and curriculum will be found in the back of the yearbook instead of in the front as is customary. We have tried to keep this yearbook as informal as possible and hope that you will like it that way.

Now it is time to turn the pages. Remember that the year was yours.

RONNIE RONCK, Editor

'In Tune With the Seasons'

These are the people to whom we owe so many thanks—without them the 1964 Crest would never have come to be. All the planning, all the hopes, all the dreams for this year's book would remain dreams and useless paper work without the help of Sister Alphonsine, our advisor, and the staff. A staff is composed of many individual people, but the spirit that binds the group together is that intangible quality that makes the production of a yearbook possible. These students spend many hard-working hours doing the endless jobs of typing, sorting, filing, writing copy, and taking pictures. David Amelon, one of the hardest-working members of the staff, is Crest photographer.

Work on The Crest began in September. As each deadline is met and the completion of the book draws nearer, one tends to forget the hectic, nerve-racking times during the year and looks back on the fun-filled times had by all.

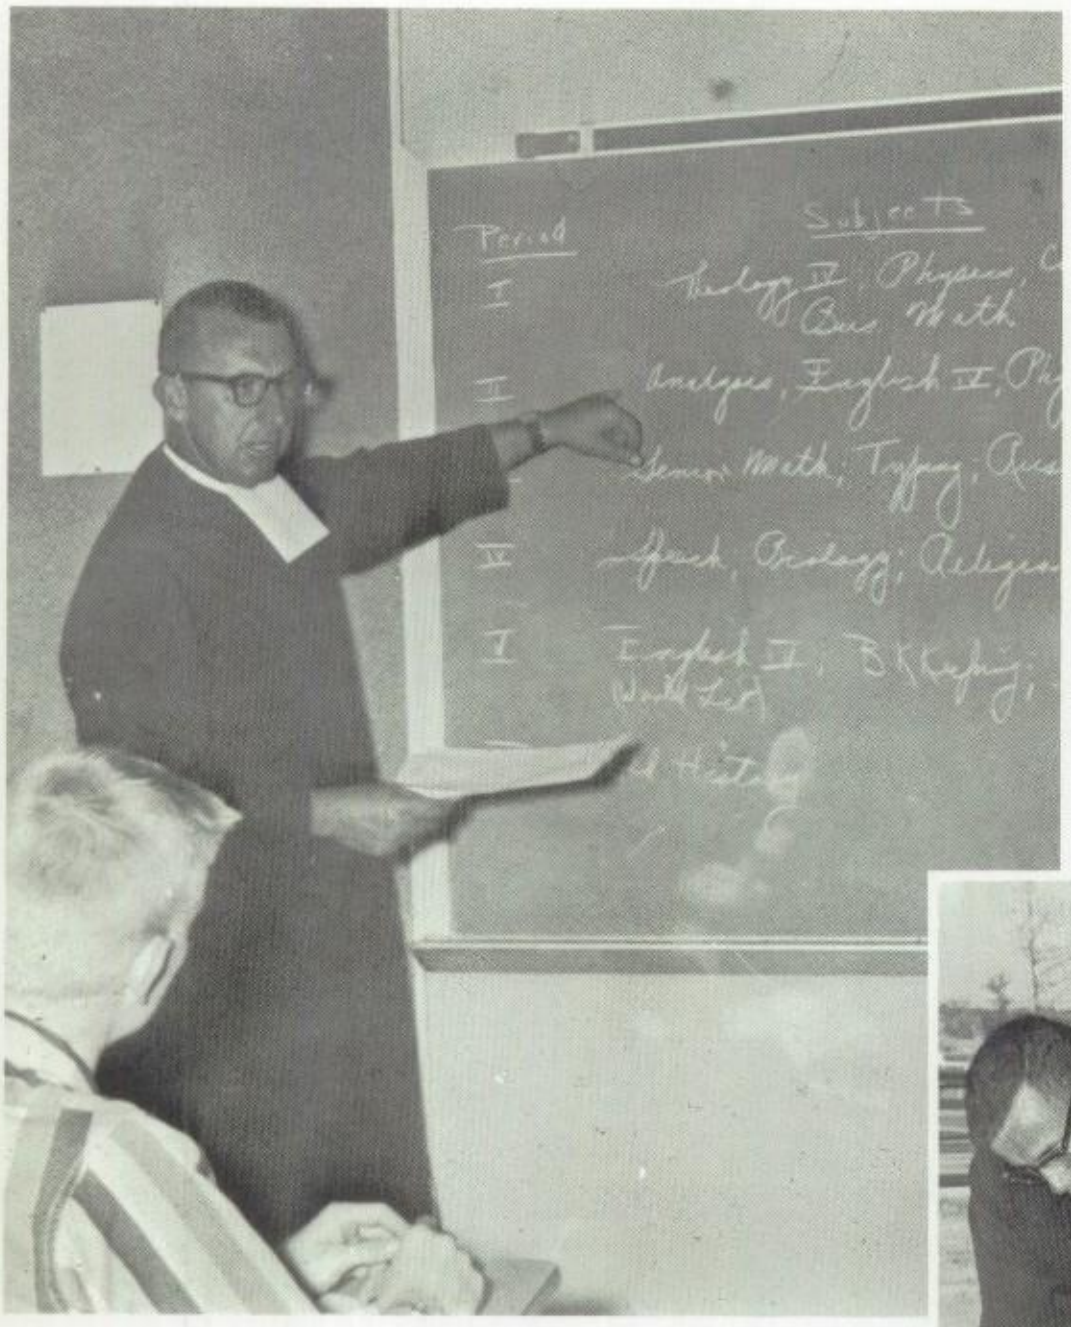
The first third of the academic year began in the fall. Thus, the months covered in this section are September, October, and November. The events of these three months were as varied as they were memorable. To name a few, the annual Howdy Dance was held September 7; the Holy Ghost Mass, September 12; the Football Homecoming Dance, October 13; and College Day, November 26.

However, not everything that happened was joyous. On November 22, the late President John F. Kennedy was assassinated during a motorcade in Dallas, Texas. The staff has decided to dedicate two pages of the yearbook to the memory of this great man. The nation suffered a loss that day which will be felt for many years to come.

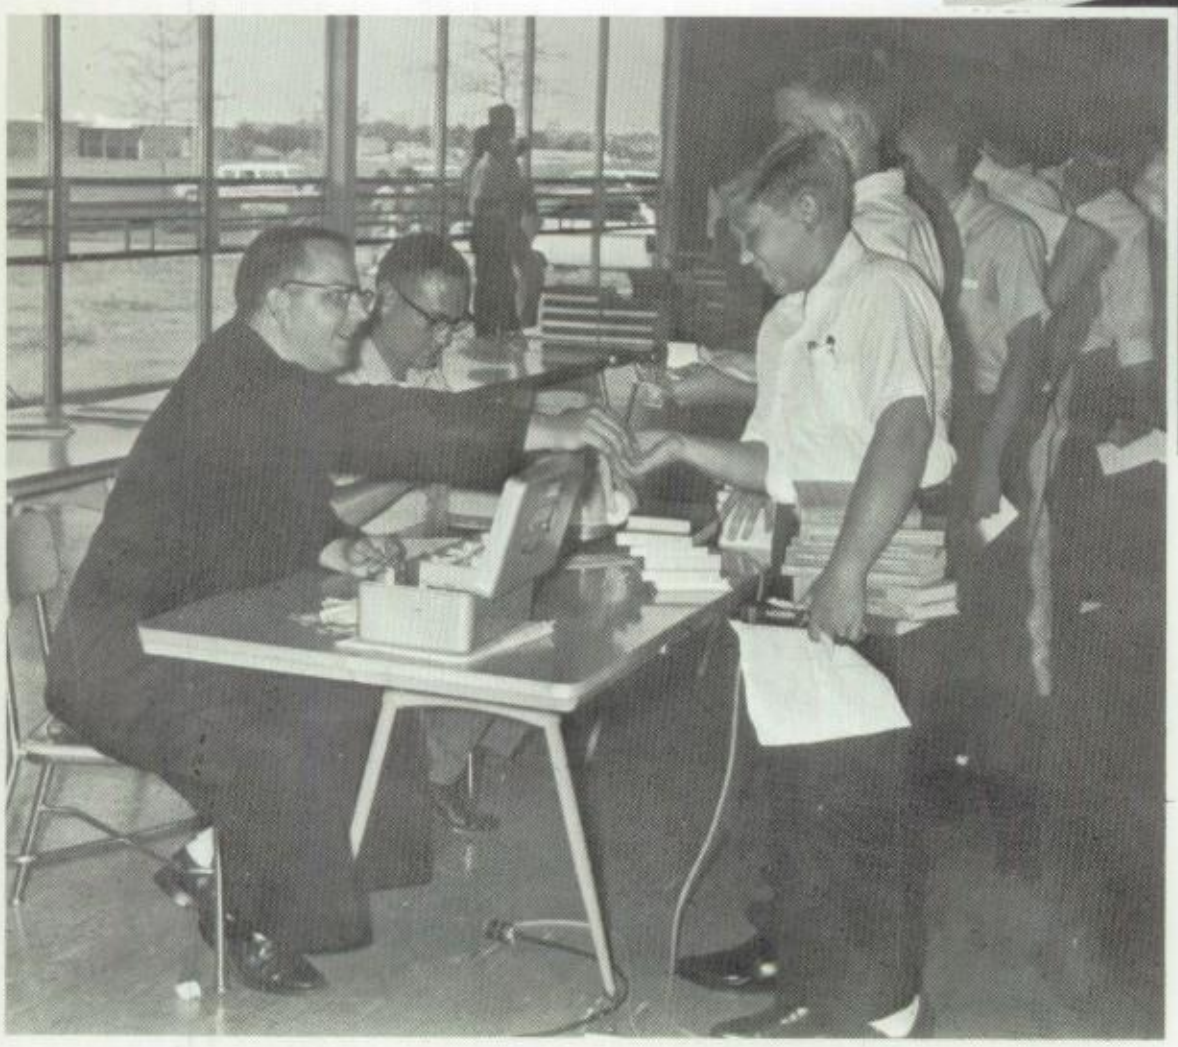
Howdy Dance
Week of

It is customary to designate the first week of the school year as Howdy Week. It is a week characterized by friendliness and always sparked by a feeling of togetherness.

During the week name tags were purchased by the students.



Brother Bernardine answers questions concerning the year's new schedule for Bill Norris, who seems to be having trouble.

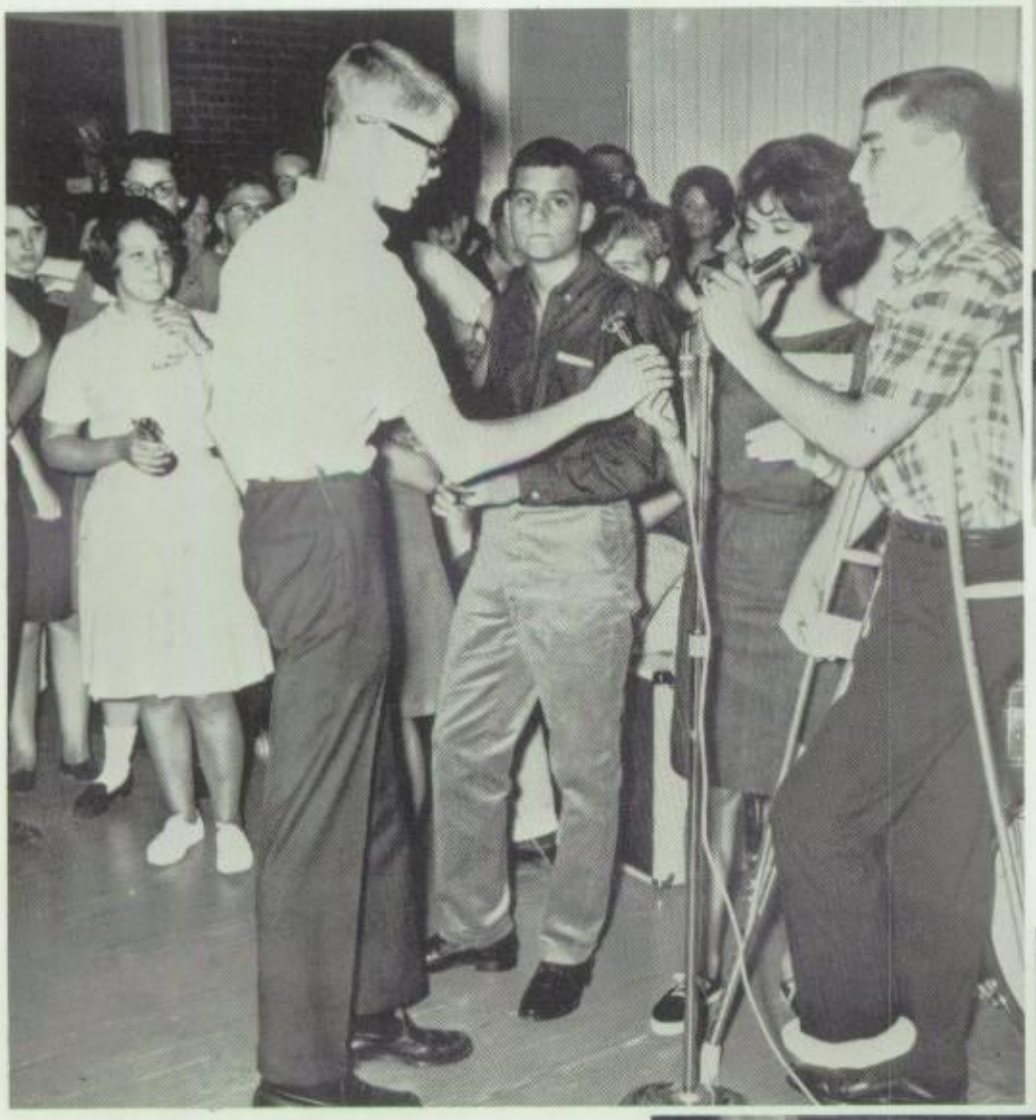


Brother Dominic and Brother Jerome help decipher book-lists for two freshmen.

The books have been bought. Now comes the time for study.

Climaxes Registration

These same tags served as the admission tickets to the Howdy Dance held September 7 in the school cafeteria. It was at this dance that the Mr. and Miss Howdy of each department were named.



Janet Blaize, secretary of the Student Council, presents "Howdy" award to Michel Siebert. Our Student Council president, Charles Sublett, is recovering from a vicious game of "kick the can."

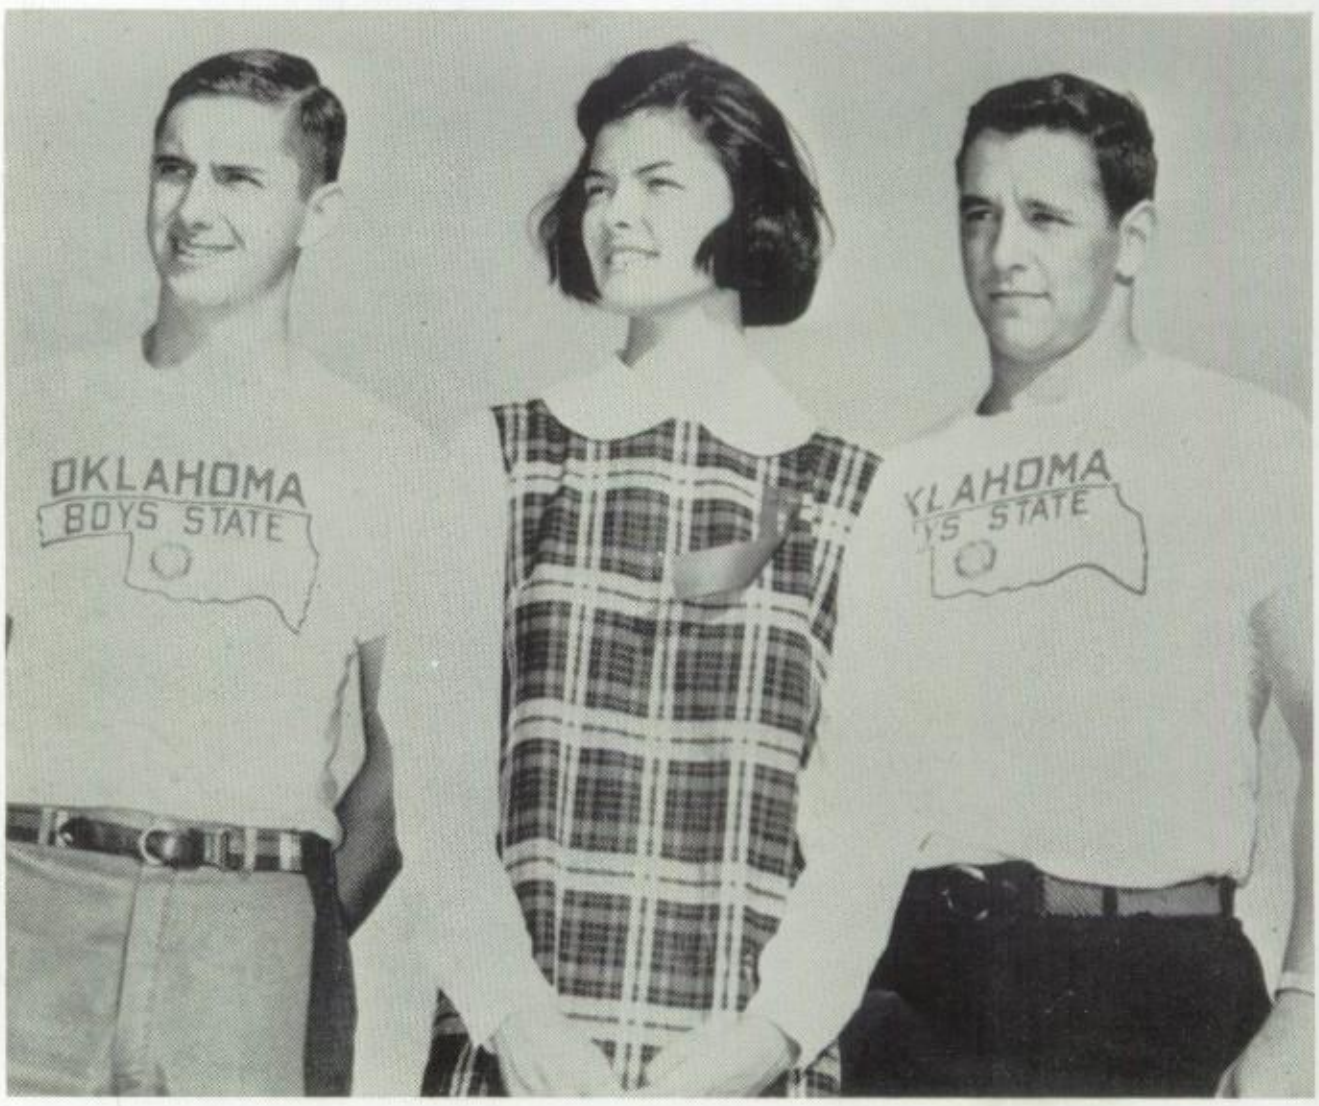
John MacMorris is named "Mr. Howdy" of the junior class.

"Howdy" winners: Linda Hellinghausen, Chris Zizzi, Michel Siebert, John Mac Morris, Judy Debolt, Tim Sullivan, Sharon Ellis, and Tom McCarthy.

Susan Roberts, Maureen Brennan, Art Murphy, Charles Sublett, and John Carson became semi-finalists and later finalists through their outstanding performance on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test.

September Brings Honors

Anne Bullock, Bill Spielberger, and Mal Coury represented Kelley at Boys' and Girls' State. While at Boys' State, which was held at Oklahoma University, Bill and Mal joined the "Sooners" in their political campaigns. At the same time, but at Oklahoma Women's College in Chickasha, Anne was taking part in approximately the same activities. Anne, a "Boomer," was chosen City Manager of Rice City. She also received the state office of Superintendent of Public Instruction.



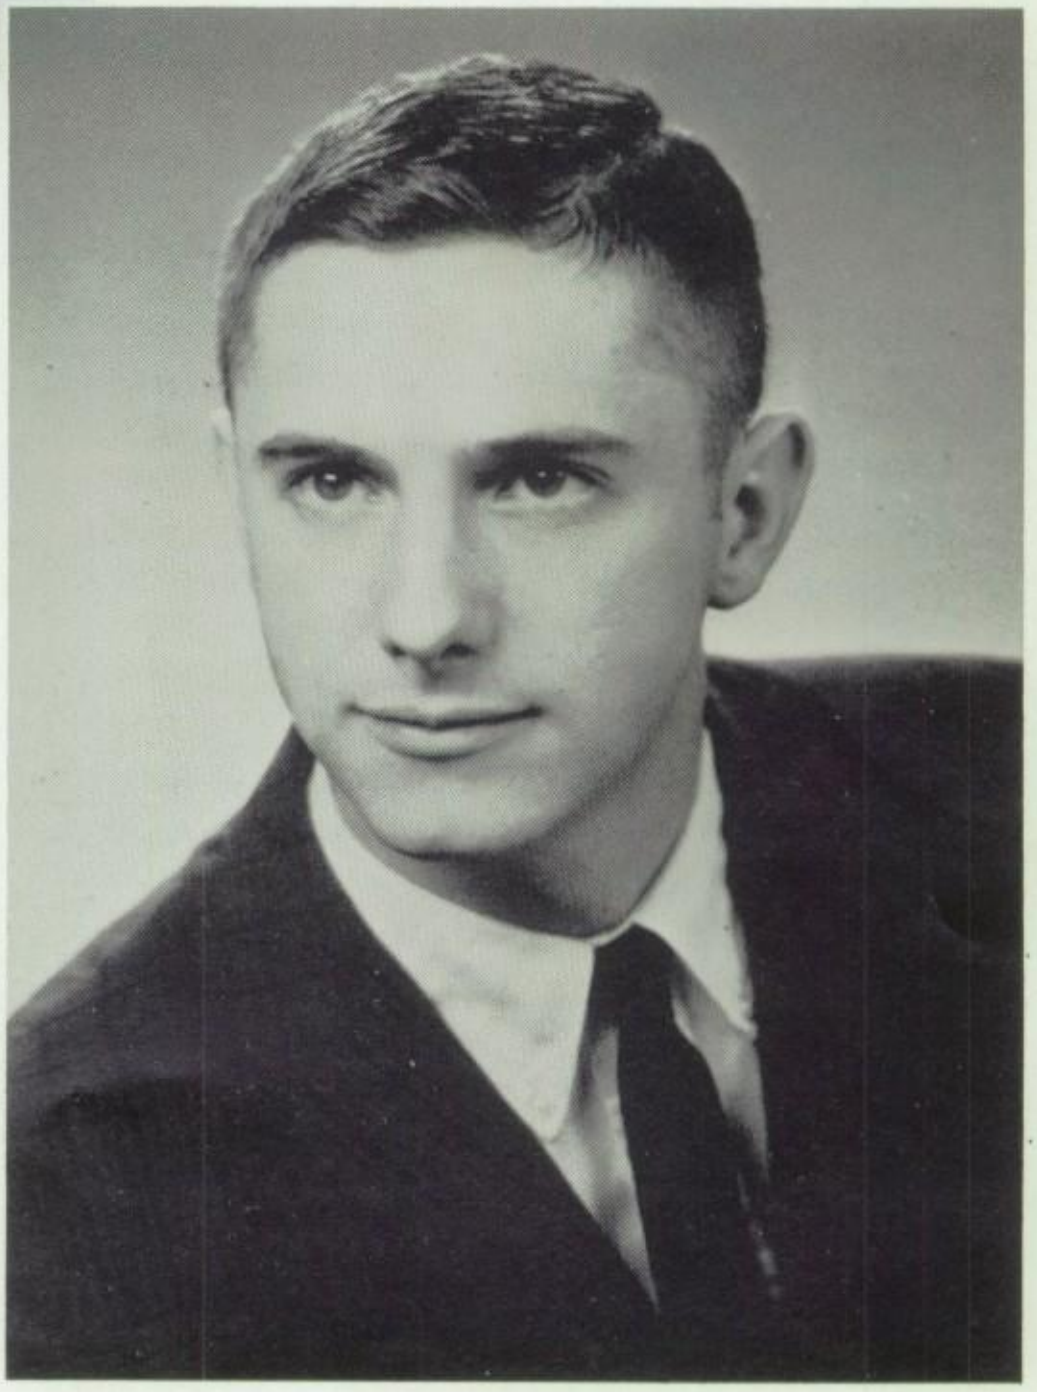
September

Boy and Girl of the Month

Becky Grossman

What would a Kelley Pep Squad be like without Becky Grossman down in front cheering? Only one varsity squad in the history of Kelley has missed Becky's cheerleading talents. This year she was captain of Tulsa's greatest cheerleading squad.

Even when our "leading lady" was not able to lead cheers, she was seen hobbling along at the head of the cripples' brigade.



Bill Spielberger

All who remember the name "Keyettes," later re-named Anchor Club, will remember Bill Spielberger and his "discussions" concerning the name of Kelley's West Wing service club.

Through leadership, school spirit, and overall friendliness, Key Club President Bill Spielberger has made himself a welcome figure in any crowd. With his "punning" sense of humor, he has contributed much to the overall comedy of the senior class.

The freshmen, participating actively in the liturgy of the First Friday Mass, are: Joe Siebert, Pat Siebert, Joe Schulte, John Carrara, Mike Douglas, Pat Morelli, Linda Hellinghausen, Tim Clancy, Molly McGrath, Tula Flusche, Fred Freischner, and Rickey Atkins.

Kelley, a Christian Community

Kelley is more than an educational institution. It is more than a simple academic grouping of administrators, teachers, and students for the purpose of growing in knowledge. It is, first of all, a Christian community; and, as such, the heart of its activity is its worship.

The First Friday Mass of October 4, planned and executed by the freshmen, was a gleaming example of Kelley's faith. The Offertory procession, which culminated in the presentation of symbolic gifts to Father Robert Schlitt, celebrant of the Mass, was very meaningful and impressive. Charles Sublett presented a box containing the teachers' and students' petitions for the Ecumenical Council.

With their conference at an even two wins and two losses, Kelley placed third in the conference, their highest finish in three years. Besides doing much better than predicted, the Comets placed four players on the all-conference "Dream Team."

The spirit of Bishop Kelley High School was never higher than it was on October 11, 1963. On this day the traditional bonfire burned prematurely to the ground. It was 12:30 p.m. as fourth hour classes rushed to the scene and looked helplessly on. There were few remains—only the cinders of a week's work were left behind.

That same afternoon a plea was made to the students of Kelley to rebuild the bonfire. The response was tremendous. Not only was the bonfire rebuilt but built 20 feet higher than the first!

Later in the evening, the bonfire was "officially burned." It was a huge flame that could be seen on the outskirts of Tulsa. Yes, the flame was symbolic of Kelley spirit!

Elegance and grandeur set the mood for the 1963 Kelley Homecoming dance. After the traditional crowning ceremonies, Co-captain Tom Boyle presented Queen Connie with a bouquet of long-stemmed red roses. Highlight of the evening for the members of the football team was the honor of dancing with their queen.

Boy and Girl of the Month

Kathy Leroux

Kelley's one and only "Girl of the Mouth" is Kathy Leroux. Four years of active membership in the Pep Club equipped her for her position of president of Kelley's largest girls' organization. Although Pep Club work called for much time and energy, Kathy contributed to other organizations. She was secretary of her class in her junior year and vice-president of the Girls' Recreation Association. Kathy is also a very active officer of St. Mary's Y.C.S.

As Kelley's one and only "Boy of the Mouth" (Let him share the honor!) Charlie Sublett, president of the Kelley Student Council, has proved his loyalty and love for Bishop Kelley High School. Outstanding academically, he has maintained an "A" average and is one of the five Kelleyites named National Merit finalists. Charlie's perpetual smile and friendly spirit make him popular with everyone—the young and the old.

Teachers Greet Parents

Interested parents waited eagerly for the 7:30 p.m. bell to ring. With their sons' and daughters' schedules in pockets and purses, they met for a short homeroom period to become orientated. Then began the mad rush to their classes, which were 10 minutes long with a two-minute intermission. It would be interesting to know how many tardy slips were issued that night!

Christine Kreder

The job of student council vice-president may seem like a big job for a petite girl like Chris; but she is one girl with enough energy and experience to do the job well.

Y.C.S. has been graced with her membership for four years. Chris was president of her sophomore homeroom and a Symphony Deb her junior year. Last spring, Chris was initiated into the National Honor Society. And she will be long remembered as Adele in Jane Eyre.

Ken Quinn, senior class president, also carried the responsibilities of Key Club vice-president. During his junior year, Kenny joined Chris in the Student Council as a homeroom representative.

Ken is not only a politician, but also a sportsman. Kelley's basketball court has set the scene for his display with that large round ball. At other times, Kenny may be seen outside trying to slaughter a poor defenseless little ball, commonly called the baseball.

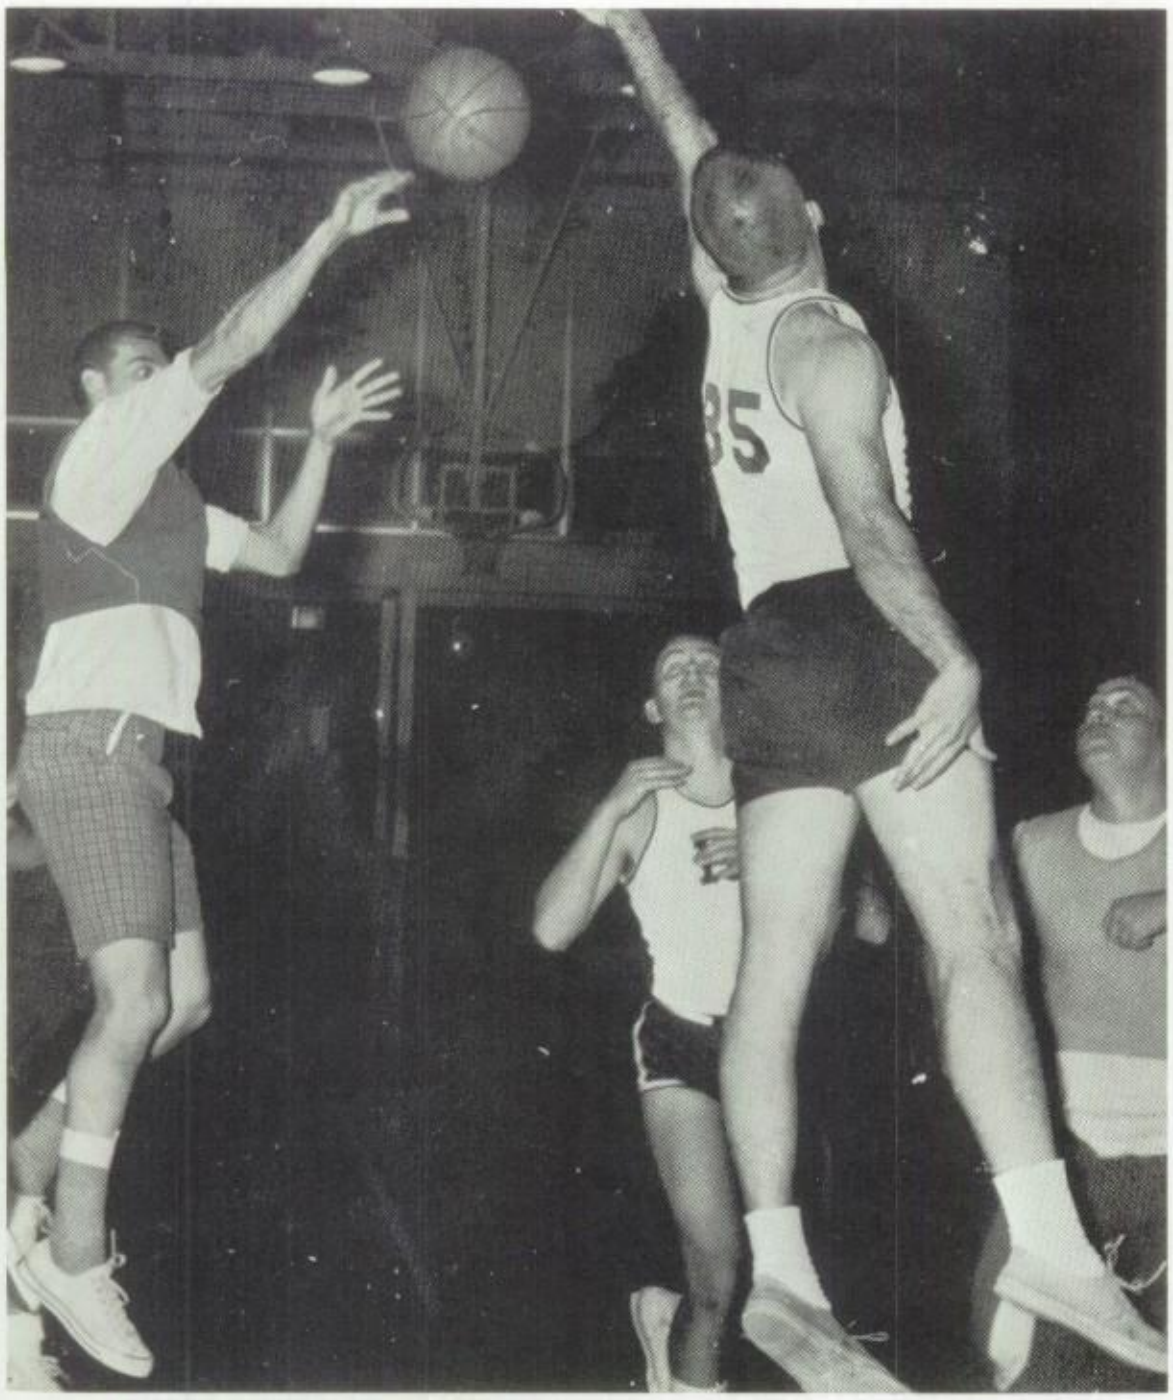
The winter section covers the months of December, January, and February. In spite of ice, sleet, and snow, the activities during this season were just as well attended as those in the autumn.

The faculty-alumni game was played December 19; the basketball coronation dance was held January 18; the Key Club sweetheart dance, February 16; and the annual skating party, February 27.

January 24 marked a change in the administration at Bishop Kelley High School. Brother Alfred, F.S.C., was transferred to St. Mel's High School in Chicago. Brother Alfred was succeeded as Kelley's director by Brother K. Bernardine. Brother Thomas became principal of boys.



Faculty —

One of the most unusual events, and certainly the most interesting to the students, is the annual faculty-alumni game. This year's game, featuring the now famous "opposing" cheerleaders, was a total success. A packed house of yelling spectators saw the tiring but dedicated faculty

Wrestling has always been a strong sport at Kelley, and the 1963-64 squad proved to be no exception. Coach Cremin combined senior leadership and know-how, three good juniors, three outstanding sophomores, and one freshman to build an "almost" unbeatable team.

Kelley's season ended with its dual meet loss, a heartbreaking 26-7 loss to Tulsa Washington. But preceding this lone defeat, Kelley had placed fourth in the Rogers's tournament, second in the Kelley Classic, first in the Edison tournament, and had amassed a string of 7 straight victories.

The season saw Kelley wrestlers take 9 first places in 4 tournaments. Chris Cremin, Kelley's outstanding sophomore point producer, placed first in the Bristow and Kelley tournaments. Darrell Bolton, Kelley's only other two-time tournament winner, won at Rogers and Kelley. Edison tournament champs were Jim Bundy, Tom Frohnapfel, Bryan O'Brien, and Jim Frohnapfel. Kelley also produced the only freshman tournament champ in Oklahoma—Mike Mendenhall in the Kelley Classic.

Madalene Dickmann

It would be difficult to find a better all-around girl than Madalene Dickmann.

Y.C.S. and the Kelley Choral Club are two of the many organizations which have prospered under Madalene's leadership. An accomplished musician, her greatest interest is liturgical music. Madalene is a member of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, Kelley Student Council, and the National Honor Society.

One of Kelley's own "Dairy Boys" is Art Murphy, an outstanding member of the student body. He is best known in the role of student council treasurer, which office he executed with special ability. Art has also contributed much to Key Club and Y.C.S.

Art is one of the lucky few who seem to have all it takes to be a success—the brains of a National Merit finalist and the brawn of an intramural wrestling champ.

Comets Win Few but Show Desire

Considering the number of wins and losses, many people would consider the Comets as being a poor team, winning only 4 games while losing 16. However, there is a difference between winning and being victorious. A team achieves victory only after they have played to the best of their abilities and have nurtured a true spirit of team play. For this reason, the 1964 Comets were a much better team than the scores indicate.

In her speech, Mrs. Nancy Feldman, Ph.D., professor of history at the University of Tulsa, stressed the fact that, more than their obligation, it should be their joy to utilize their talents for the benefit of mankind.

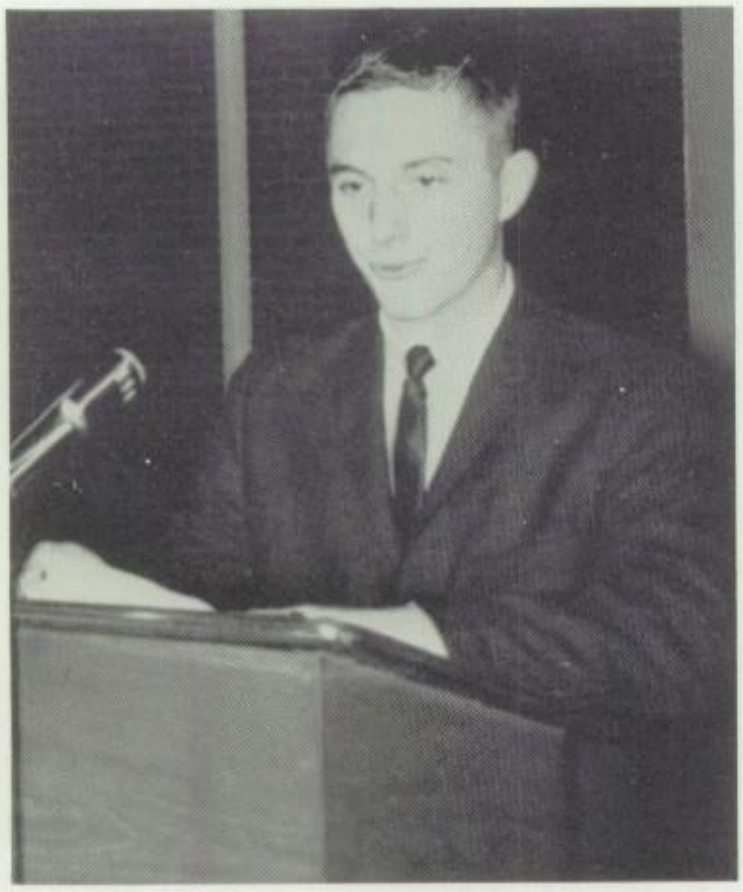
Farewell

The entire student body offered Mass with Msgr. James Rooney for Brother I. Alfred's intention.

Madalene Dickmann, Ken Quinn, Toni Gray, and Charles Sublett present gifts in the Offertory Procession.

Msgr. Rooney addresses students and faculty at the Farewell Assembly.

Tribute



Bill Spielberger opens Farewell Assembly for Brother Alfred.

Brother Alfred accepts a spiritual bouquet from Charles Sublett, Student Council president, as a token of the students' appreciation.

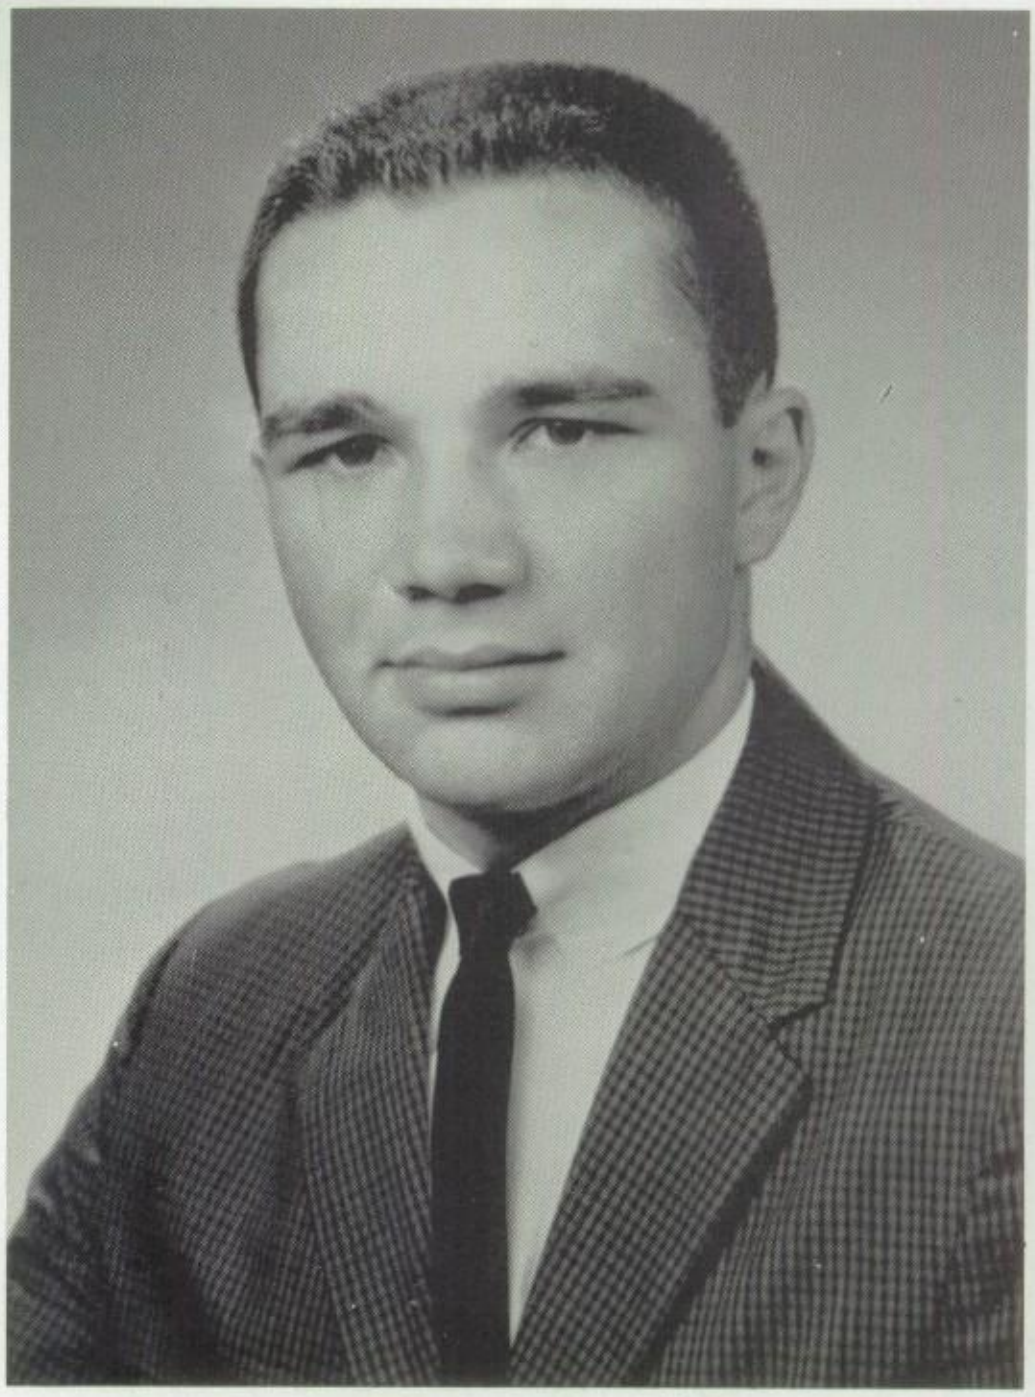
The entire faculty gathers at a dinner for their farewell tribute to their director and friend.

Friends and acquaintances take their final opportunity to say good-bye to Brother Alfred and to greet Sister Angelina Marie and the new director, Brother K. Bernardine.

January
Boy and Girl of the Month

Cathy Trainor

Mrs. Fairfax II of JANE EYRE fame has certainly been one of the most active members of Kelley's illustrious Class of 1964. Besides Dramatics Club activities, Pep Club has played an important role in Cathy's life. As senior cheerleader, she is famous for her enthusiasm. Cathy has been a Choral Club member for four years and was club secretary during her senior year. She is also a member of the Symphony Debs.



Tom McCarthy

Our own version of a "long, tall Texan" came to us from Houston as a sophomore. Tom has been quite active in athletics. He played football three years and baseball two years. Tom was a member of the Letterman's Club during his sophomore and senior years, serving as president this year.

We wonder whether Mr. McCarthy, alias Mr. Mason, has recovered from the wounds inflicted by his two beloved sisters, both named Bertha.

Intramurals

Many a Saturday was spent practicing for intramural competition. Surviving the challenge of the junior boys to a best of three basketball series, the senior boys won the title this year. Relying on the shooting of Richard Burke, they maintained a well-balanced attack.

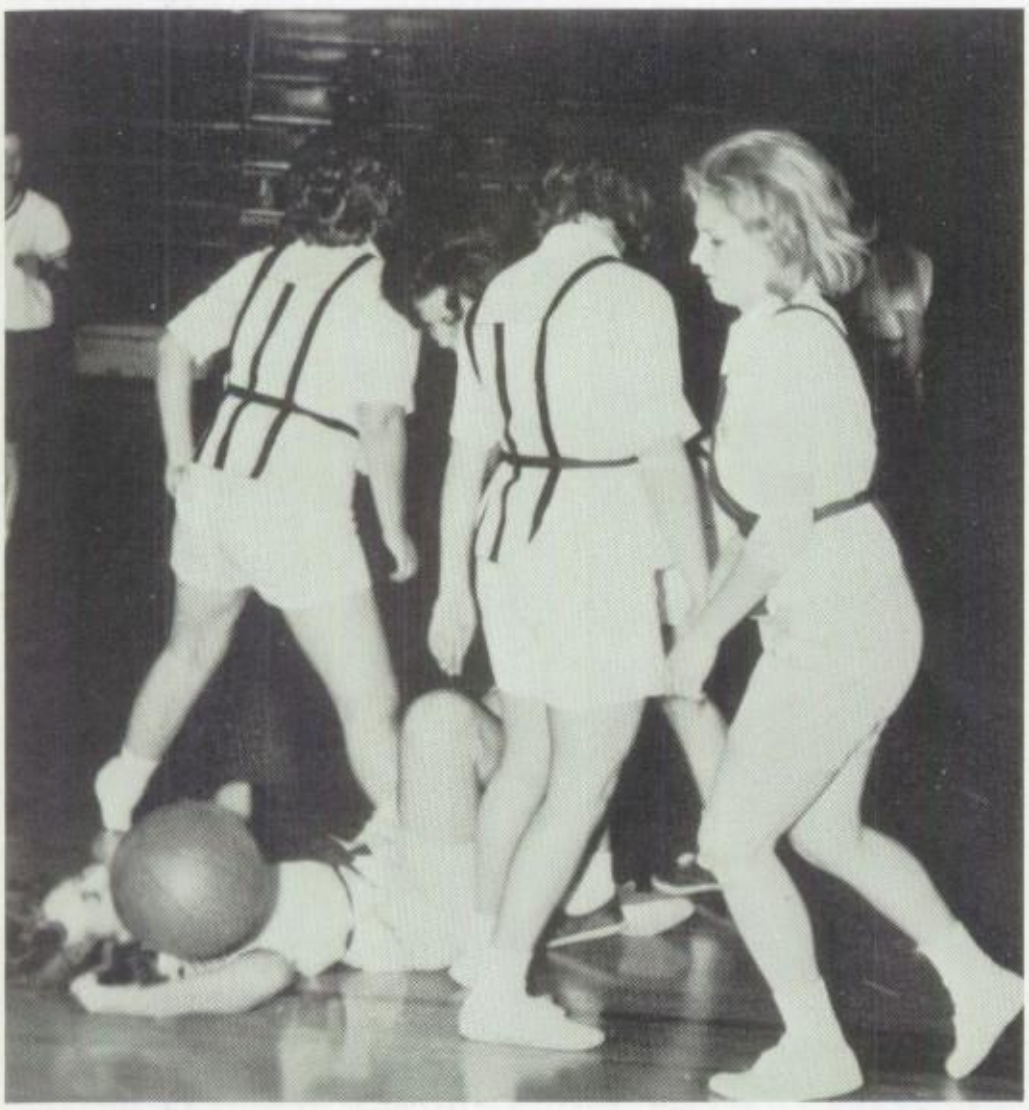
A typical ballet lesson?

"Now, where did that ball go?" cry freshmen and juniors as they show off their "exercising" talents.



Senior Judy Reames and sophomore Margie Bonaros rush to retrieve the ball, while Marian Crowley settles down for her "daily nap."

G.R.A. Undefeated

The Girls Recreation Association, headed by Cecilia Robb, had the only undefeated varsity squad in the school. With Marian Crowley and Kathie Sullivan as co-captains, the Kelley G.R.A. defeated all opponents.

The juniors came out on top when they defeated the seniors, 20-11.

Enthusiasm abounds in struggle for ball during an intramural basketball game.

G.R.A. provides healthful activity for these freshmen and sophomores eagerly awaiting the bait.

Beauty and Beast Selected at Key Club Skating Party

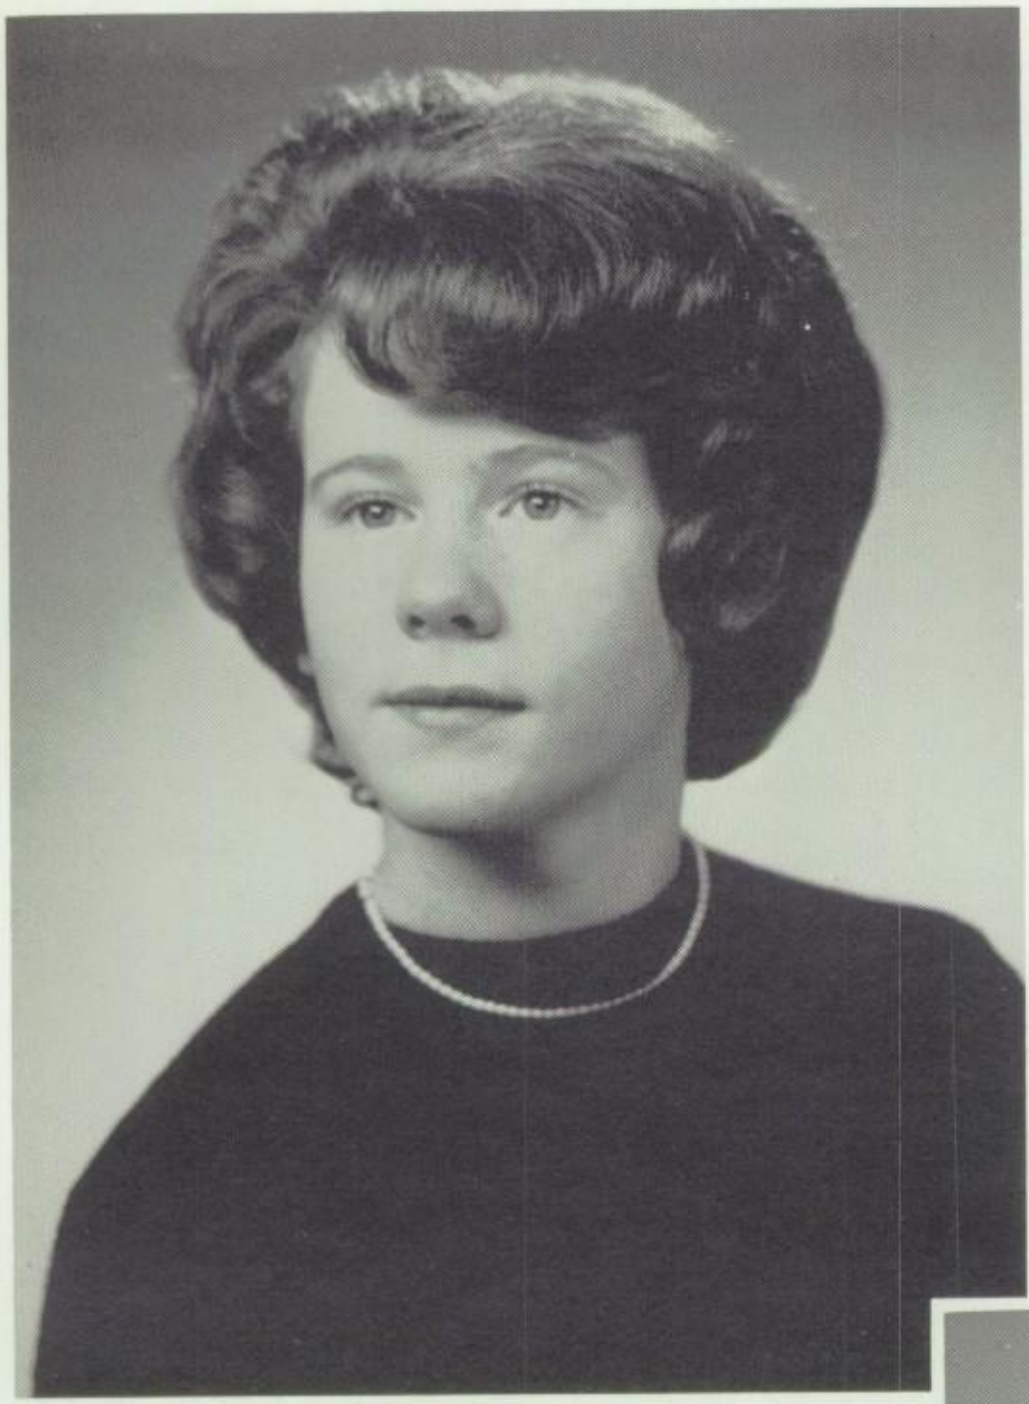
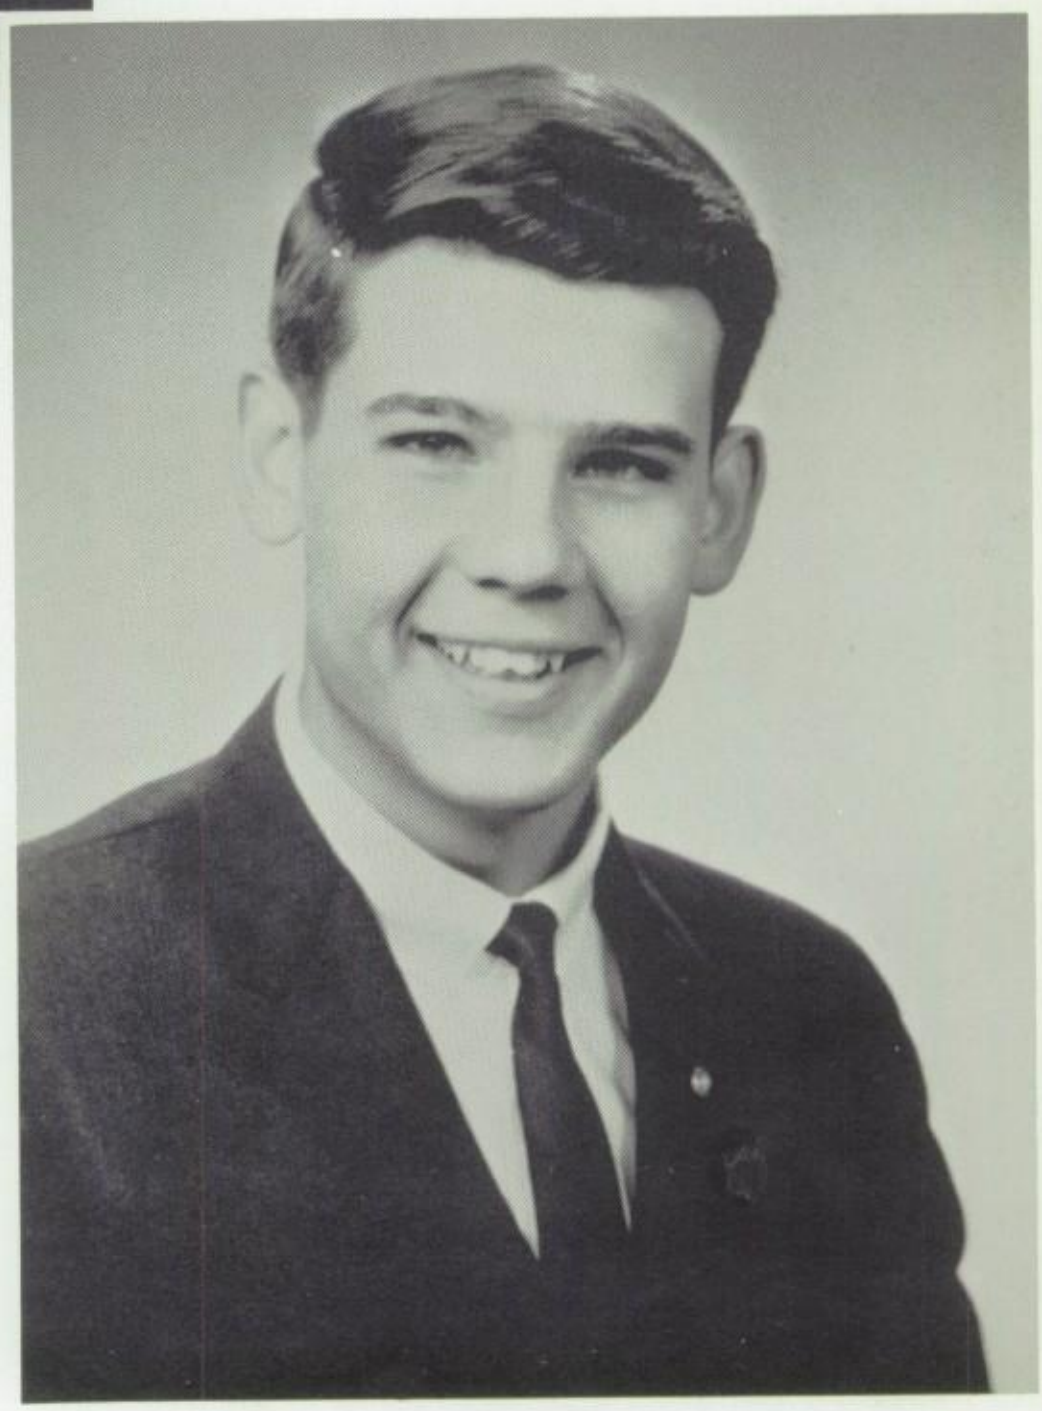
Boy and Girl of the Month



Toni Gray

"Miss Pep Machine of 1964" is Toni Gray. The type who thrives on politics, Toni believes in holding an office in every organization to which she belongs. During her senior year she served as Pep Club vice-president, Dramatics Club treasurer, and Y.C.S. federation secretary.

Her fiery red hair typify the spirit with which she headed the ticket sale for the senior play. Over 1600 tickets were sold!



Rick Barrett

In football and basketball, particularly as co-captain, Rick has made his influence felt. A large white "K" signifies his membership in Kelley's Lettermen's Club. Rick has been active in student government, holding positions of student council representative and member of the executive board during his junior and senior year. He has also been an active member of the Key Club and Philharmonic Phils.

March, April, and May comprise the spring section of the yearbook. Highlighted by "The Village Scene" carnival on April 11, the three months provided a fitting close for the year's activities.

Besides the carnival, a Hootenanny was held April 4; the Senior Class play, Jane Eyre, on the 21 and 22 of April; and the Junior-Senior Prom was planned for May 15.

Spring once again signaled a time of beginnings and endings—a time when the Graduating Class of 1964 ended their high school experience and a new class anticipated their year as seniors.

Liturgy Day

Ten schools participated in the fourth Annual High School Liturgy Day held on the Kelley campus.

Eight Kelley students conducted a demonstration Mass, with Bob Edwards officiating as priest. Bill Spielberger, Margo Droze, Tom McCarthy, Christine Kreder, John Lowerison, and Anne Bullock represented the laymen.

This dialogue celebration, which illustrated the possible "Mass of the Future," was organized by Brother Carl.

Mike Bauer and Mary Helen Perrine present their offerings to the "priest."

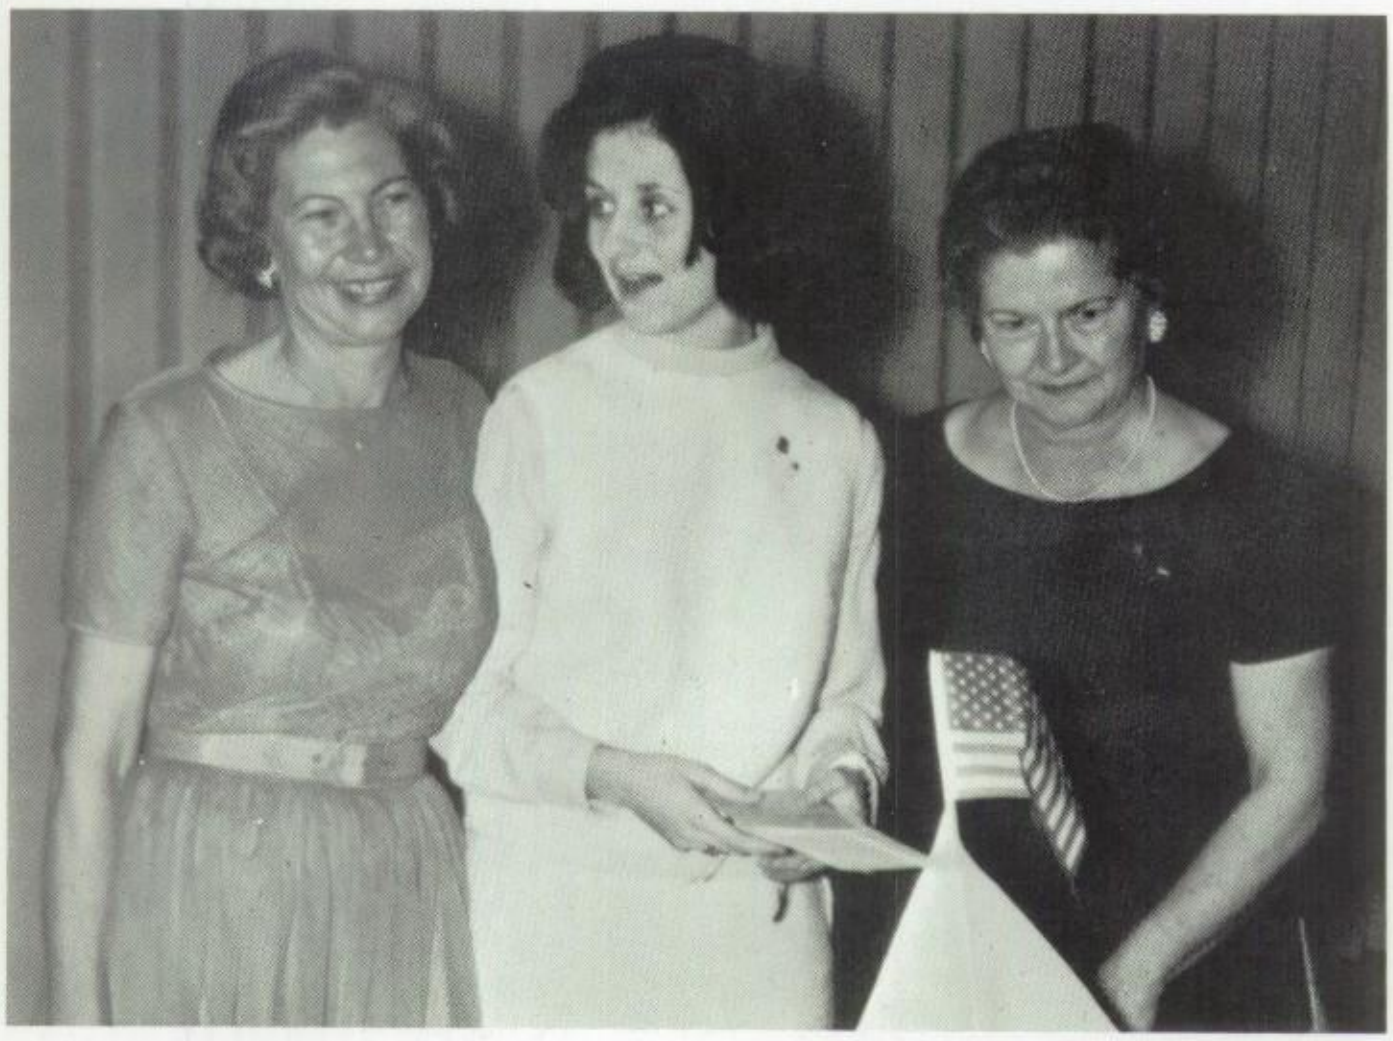
Kelley Boasts City's First Anchor Club



President Frances Lockwood, Jo Ellen Mosier, and Lieutenant Governor Alma Clark.

On March 19, the Tulsa Pilot Club proudly installed the city's first Anchor Club at Kelley.

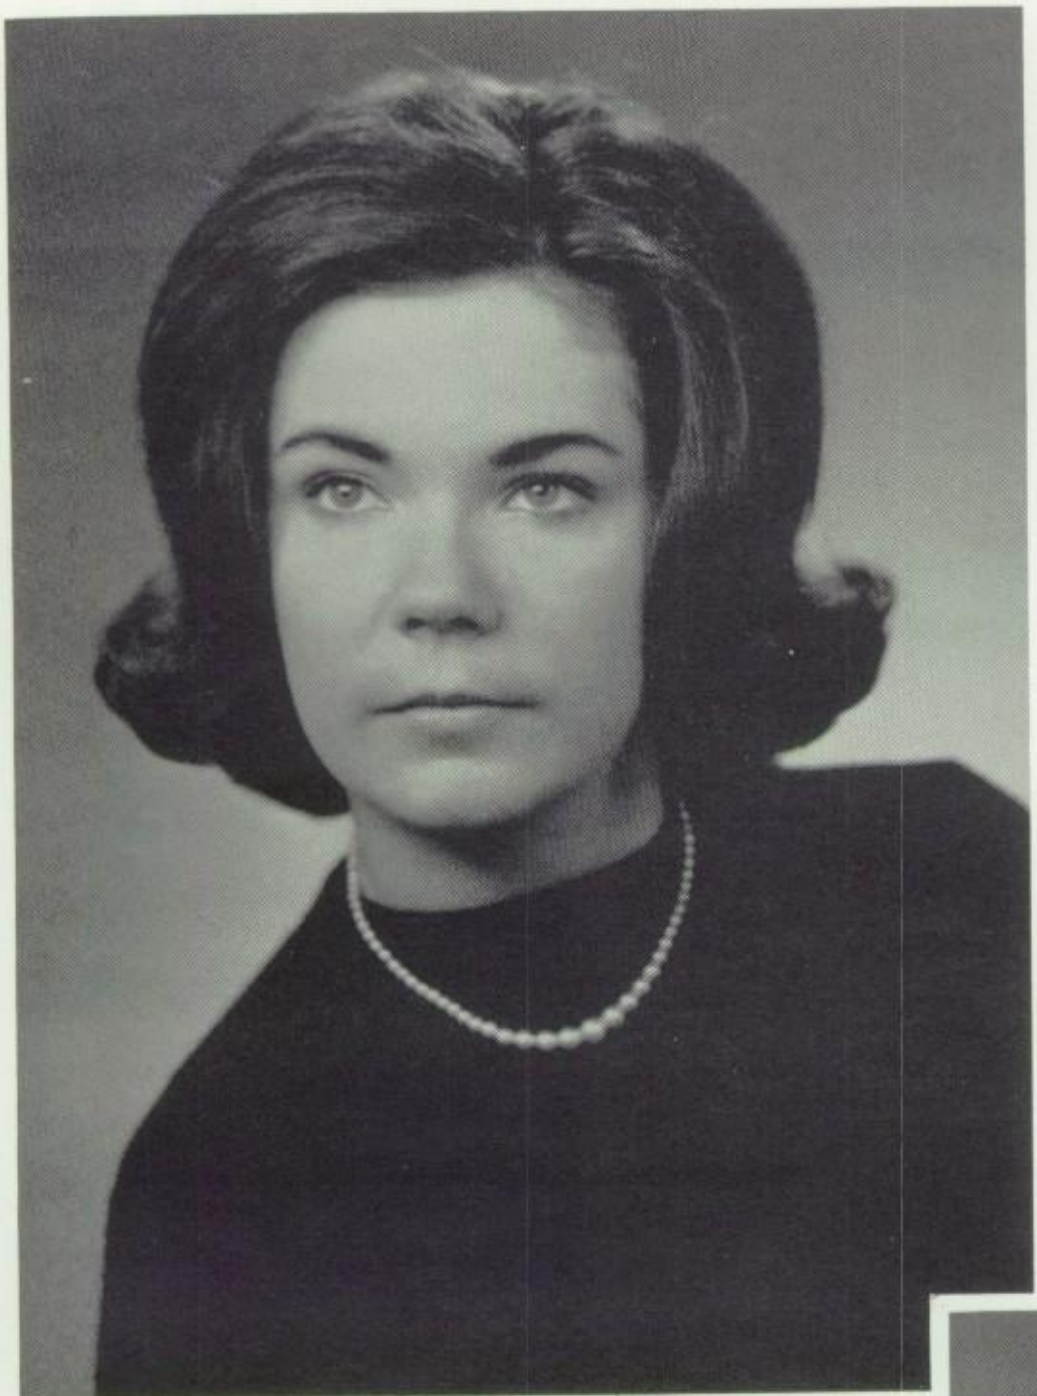
Mrs. Frances Lockwood, president of the Pilot Club, opened the ceremonies by explaining the purpose of the Anchor Club.

Lieutenant Governor Alma Clark presented the charter to Jo Ellen, who accepted it on behalf of the club.

Mrs. Frances Clements, Pilot Club sponsor, installed the officers.

March

Boy and Girl of the Month



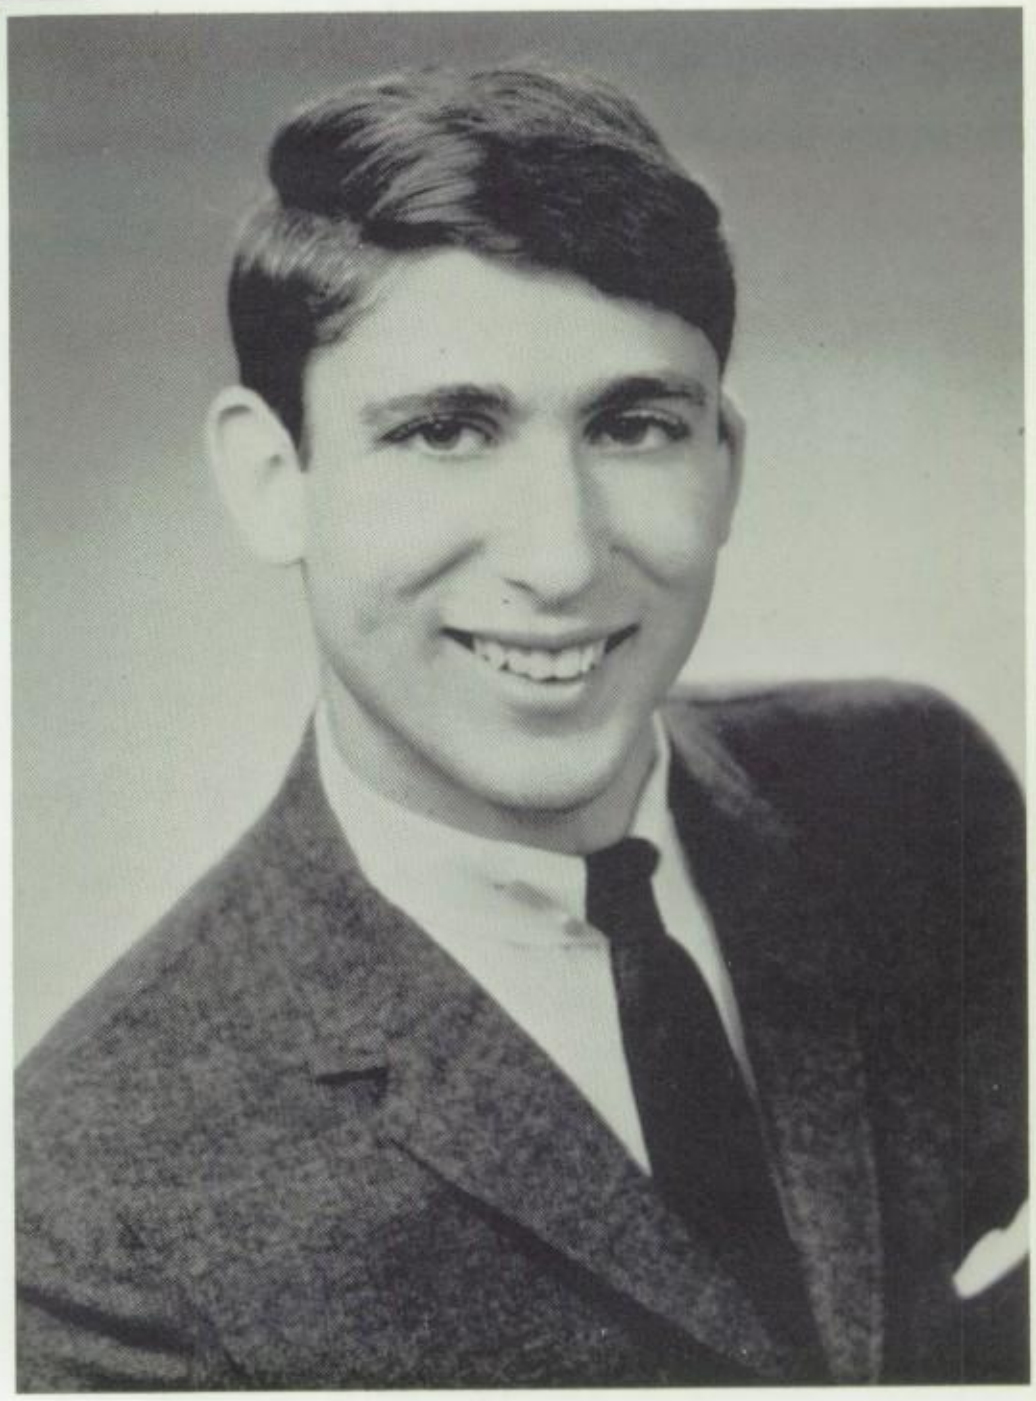
Despite the lisp of a six-year old Eloise, Paula has managed to make herself heard throughout Kelley, particularly as publicity chairman for Jane Eyre ticket sales.

"Ed," or actually "Ex-ed," as Paula is often called, was kept quite busy as editor of The Crosier and staff member of the 1964 Crest.

Paula was also a member of the Drama Club and was active in student council for two years.

In spite of her heavy extracurricular program, she managed to maintain honor roll grades.

Paula Eremewicz



For an Italian, Dennis made quite a distinguished nineteenth century Englishman in the person of Rochester, leading man of the senior play.

Though an enthusiastic spectator, Dennis is also a manager in the field of sports. He has managed various Kelley teams since his freshman year.

As a freshman Dennis was home-room vice-president. He was out of campus politics until this year when he was elected homeroom treasurer. This year Dennis is a member of the Key Club, Student Council, and Dramatics Club.

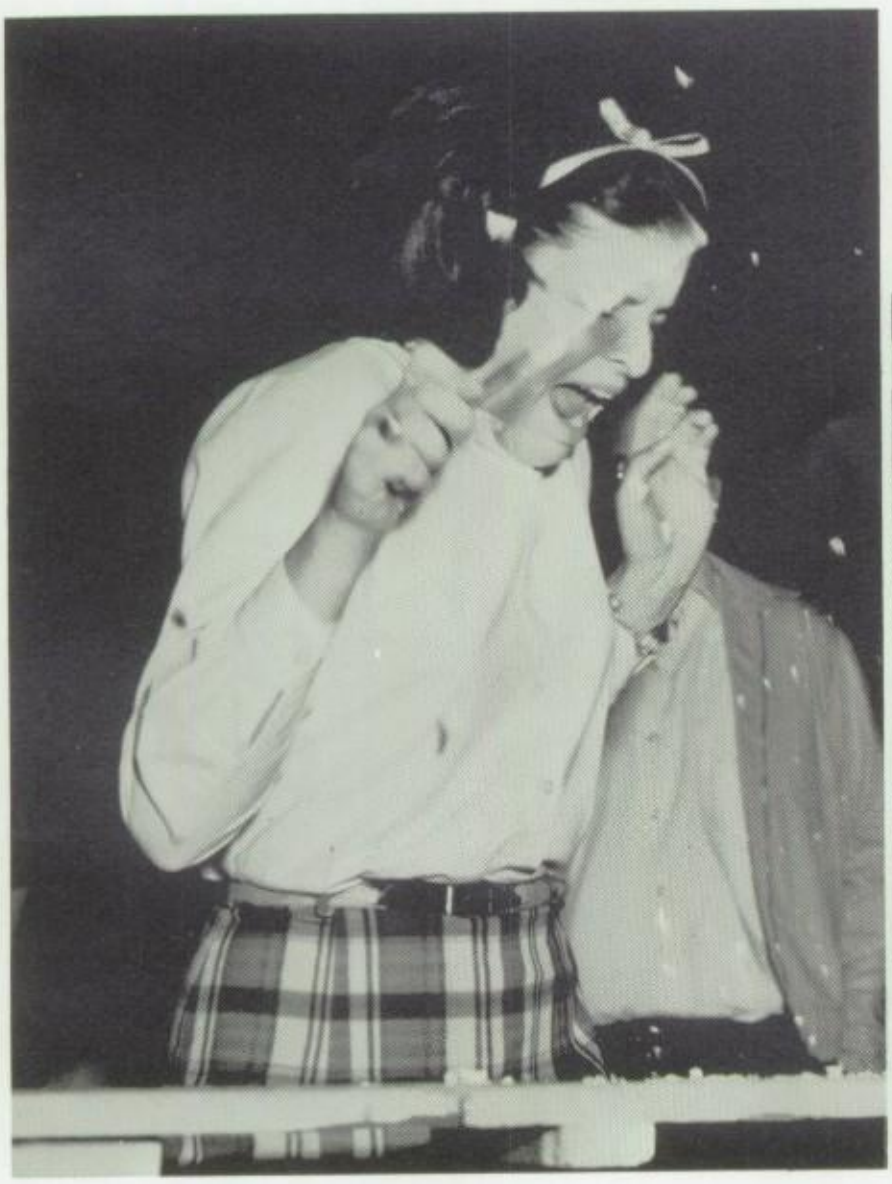
Hootenanny and Carnival Balance a Week of Activities

April 4 — April 11



"Control yourself, Leslie! Not everyone can shave a balloon."

Connie Argodale and John Lowerison eye Dian Walters as they walk out to the garden.

Margaret Haskell has her fortune read by the gypsy, Mary Jan McGrath.

Jane Eyre

On April 21 and 22, the Senior Class presented Jane Eyre on the Memorial High School stage.

A double cast was used, and alternating in the title role were Mary Ann Sontag and Ann Bullock. Dennis Molfese played the male lead of Mr. Rochester in both performances.

Also in the play were Anne O'Meila, Cathy Trainor, Megan Booker, Chris Kreder, Becky Grossman, Marian Beshara, Jo Ellen Mosier, Mary Cockrell, Ronnie Ronck, Susan Perrine, Mary Jan McGrath, Tom McCarthy, Sharon Ellis, Margaret Haskell, Dian Walters, John Lowerison, Neal Leader, Mary Ann Mesker, Connie Argodale, Bev Klenda, Patty Grady, and Diane Langford.

Sister Alphonsine directed the production.

Dennis Molfese offers the injured Tom McCarthy a glass of water after the fateful stabbing.

The Costume Shop became a familiar "hangout" for the cast. L to R: Mary Jan McGrath, Patty Grady, Dian Walters, Mary Ann Mesker, Christine Kreder, and Becky Grossman.

Sodality Sponsors Soap Drive

The Sodality, aided by the Kelley Key Club, sponsored a soap drive the week of May 1-8. A total of 270 bars were turned in making the drive a complete success. The soap was given to the migrant workers at Bixby, Oklahoma. The Mexican laborers arrive in Bixby each spring and stay until late September.

Standing, Maureen Duffy; seated, Francine Moore and Mary Cummins.

April

Boy and Girl of the Month

Jo Ellen Mosier

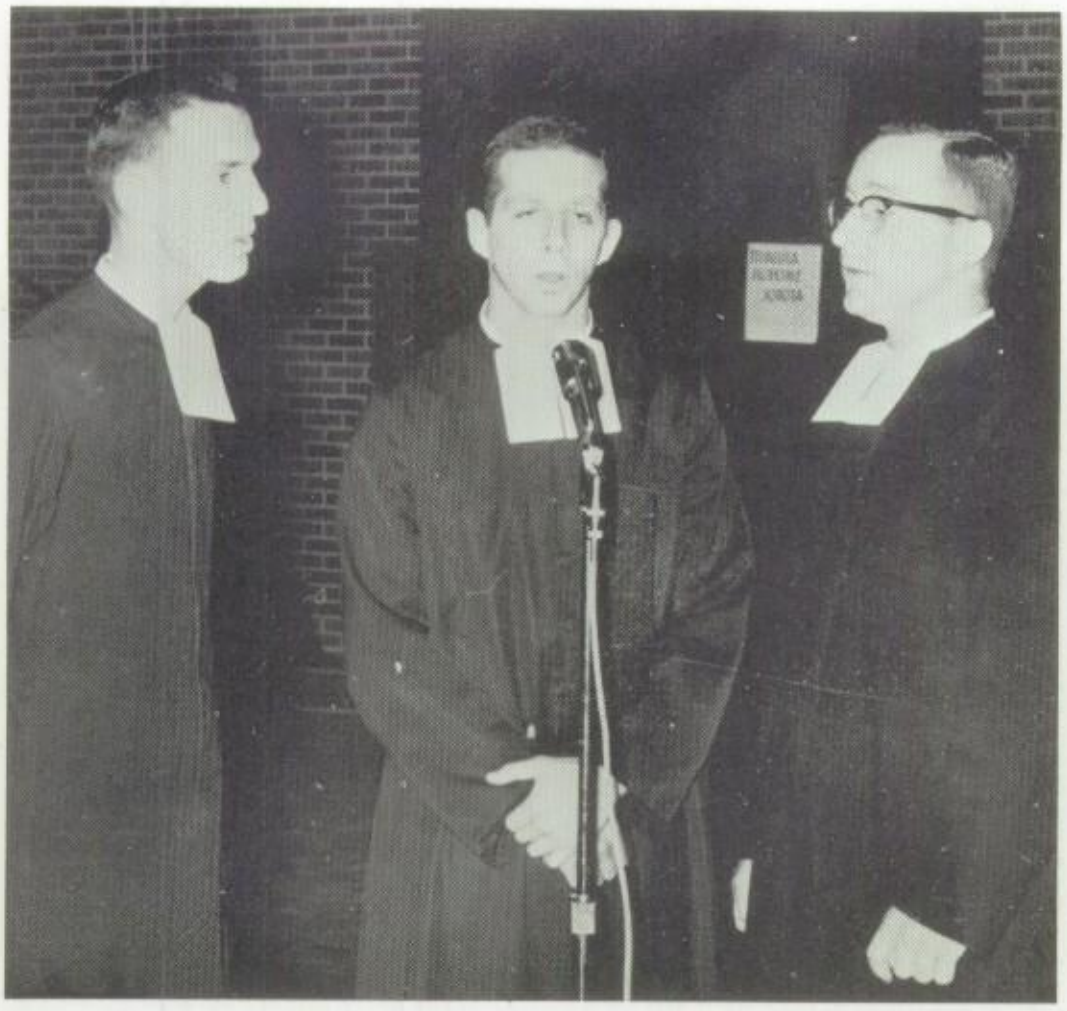
Jo Ellen Mosier, alias Grace Poole, didn't seem to think Mr. Rochester could find anyone to take her place in the West Wing of Thornfield Hall. Evidently others have also found her well-suited for various positions in west wing of Kelley High.

After helping organize the Kelley Anchor Club, Jo Ellen was elected president. She has been one of the more spirited members of the Pep Club for four years and an active participant in G.R.A. for two years.

J. C. Lawson

As a "jumpin' and jivin'" trackman, J. C. Lawson has come to be quite well known around Kelley. J. C. is a four-year varsity track letterman for the Comets, which is a distinction few athletes can boast of. This spring he captured Kelley's only first at the State Catholic meet with a 20 foot, 2 inch broad jump. He also placed third in the broad jump at the Oklahoma State "Meet of Champions."

Let's All Sing



Brother Jerome, Brother Carl, and Brother Leo

Bishop Kelley's annual spring choral and band concert was presented on Sunday, May 10. Under the direction of Sister Norberta and Mr. Joseph Walker, the sophomore and junior-senior choral classes entertained parents, teachers, and friends with springtime melodies.

The junior-senior chorus sang melodies such as "Where or When," "Love Walked In," "In the Still of the Night," while the sophomore group's songs included "Missouri Waltz," "I Believe," and "Bells of the Sea."

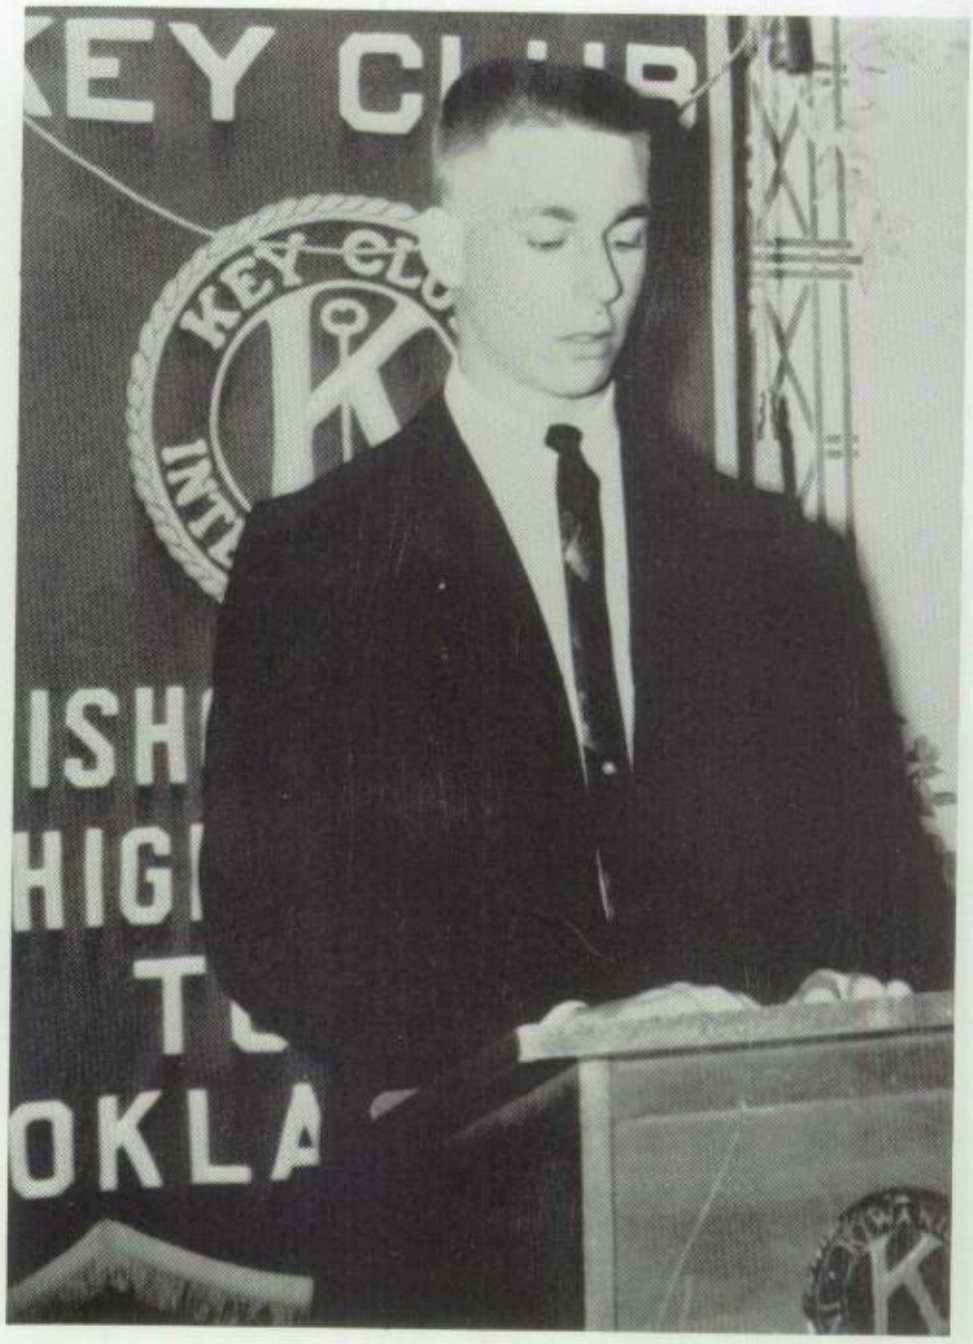
Key Club Installs



Larry Roberts, newly-elected Key Club president

Taking part in the Law Day Ceremony are: (Bottom) Mr. Louis Karey, Mr. Mitchell O'Donnell, Richard Griffin, and Mrs. Chronister. (Top) John Lowerison, Susan Perrine, Mr. Hugh Schaefer, Janet Walsh, and Bill Spielberger.

Official installation of the 1964-65 Key Club president followed the final banquet of the year.

Larry succeeds Bill Spielberger, whose term as Key Club president was outstanding for projects such as sponsoring the school-wide spelling bee, the Honors Convocation, "Beauty and Beast" Contest, and skating party. Their services included planting 400 trees on the campus, painting fence posts, ushering at various performances, participating in the city-wide Cancer Drive, and promoting participation in social and athletic events.

Installations for Student Council of 1964

Pat Clancy takes over the position of treasurer from Art Murphy.

Janet Blaize takes over the vice-presidency from Chris Kreder.

Jeanne Finan accepts the office of secretary from Janet Blaize.

May Day, 1964

Mirenchu Castro, 1964 May Queen, crowned the Blessed Virgin preceding a Mass held in the school gym on May 1.

Mirenchu, escorted by Tom McCarthy, was assisted by senior attendant Ann Rummerfield. Senior Rick Barrett was Ann's escort.

After the coronation ceremony, Sister Norberta led her choral class in a few religious hymns after which Father Schlitt joined with the students in an act of consecration to the Blessed Virgin.

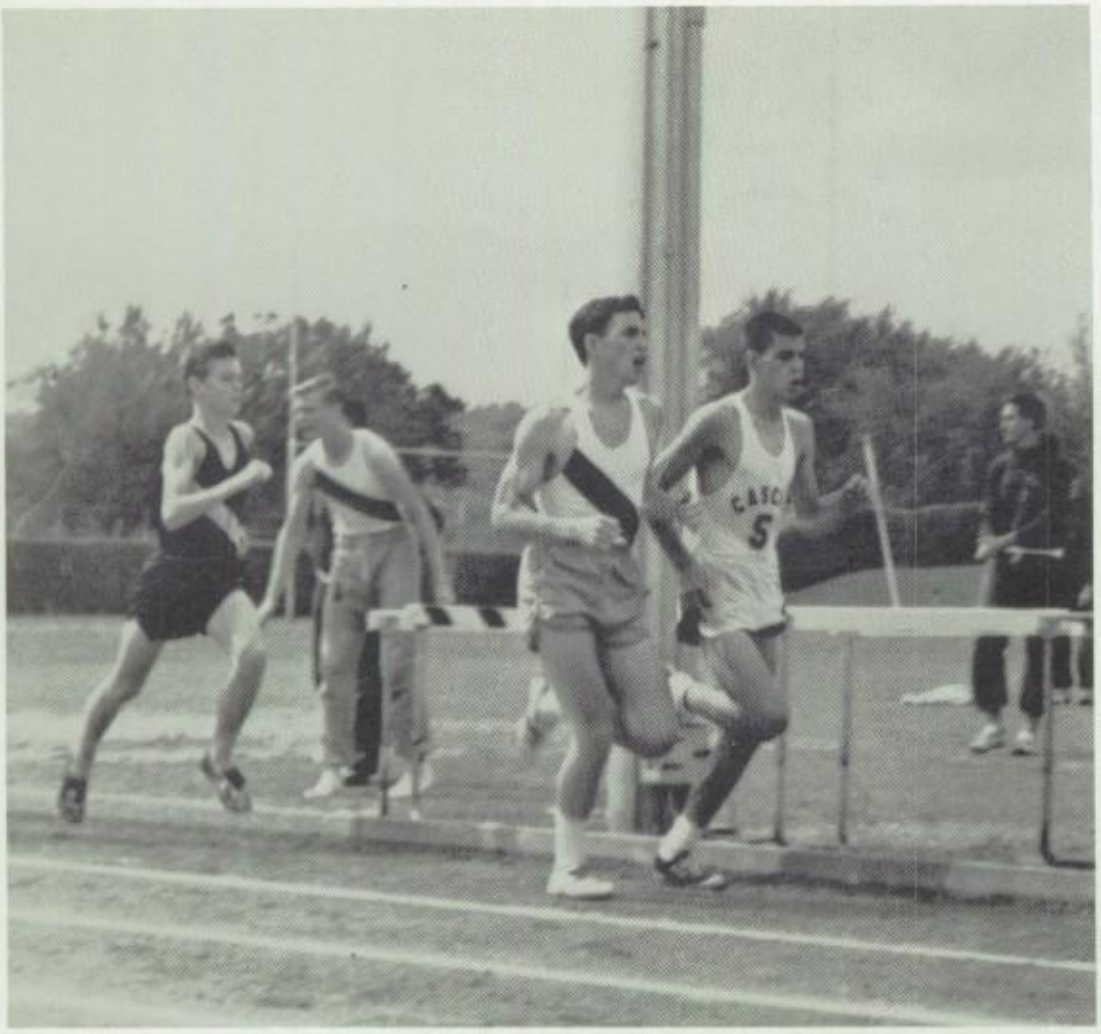
J. C. Lawson, the team's captain, takes off on his winning jump of 20' 2" at the state meet. J. C.'s first in the broad jump was the only "first" scored by Kelley in the meet.

Trackmen Place Third in State Meet



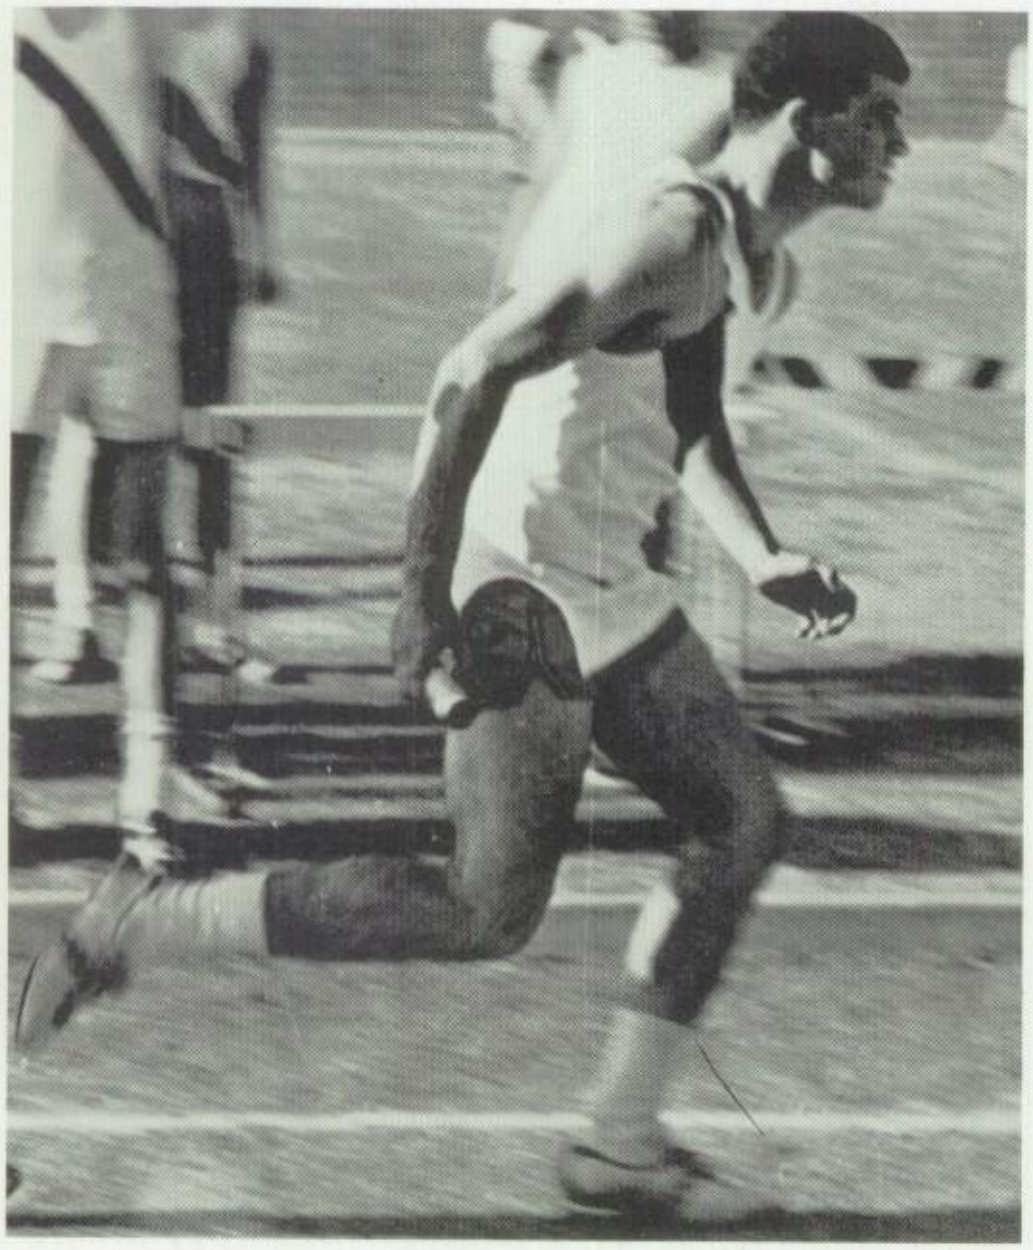
Miler Jerry DeCoursey moves towards his third place finish in the state meet.

Track at Kelley, as at every school, is an individual sport. The participant works toward one end—the success of the team through his own betterment. The Kelley cindermen took up this challenge to better themselves and succeeded.

Jim Frohnapfel displays his winning form as he takes second in the 120 high hurdles.

Davey Palm runs ahead of the pack as he wins his heat of the 100 yard dash preliminaries.

As in every sport, one person stands out in both his ability and his desire. Such a trackman was Davey Palm. By taking part in the 100 and 220 yard dashes, high jump, and 880 relay, Davey led the team in both the regular season and state meet. In the picture above, he is shown moving up to place second in the 220 yard dash.



On April 25, all the training and work of the previous three months was put to the test at the Catholic State Track Meet. When the day had ended, Kelley emerged as third place winners, taking home one first, two second, three third and four fourth place medals.

Rick Clark begins his leg of the mile relay: Kelley's relay team placed third at the state meet.

Jim Frohnapfel hurdles the eighth barrier in the 180 yard low hurdles preliminaries. Immediately after this shot was taken, Jim tripped over a controversial ninth hurdle and was disqualified from the finals.

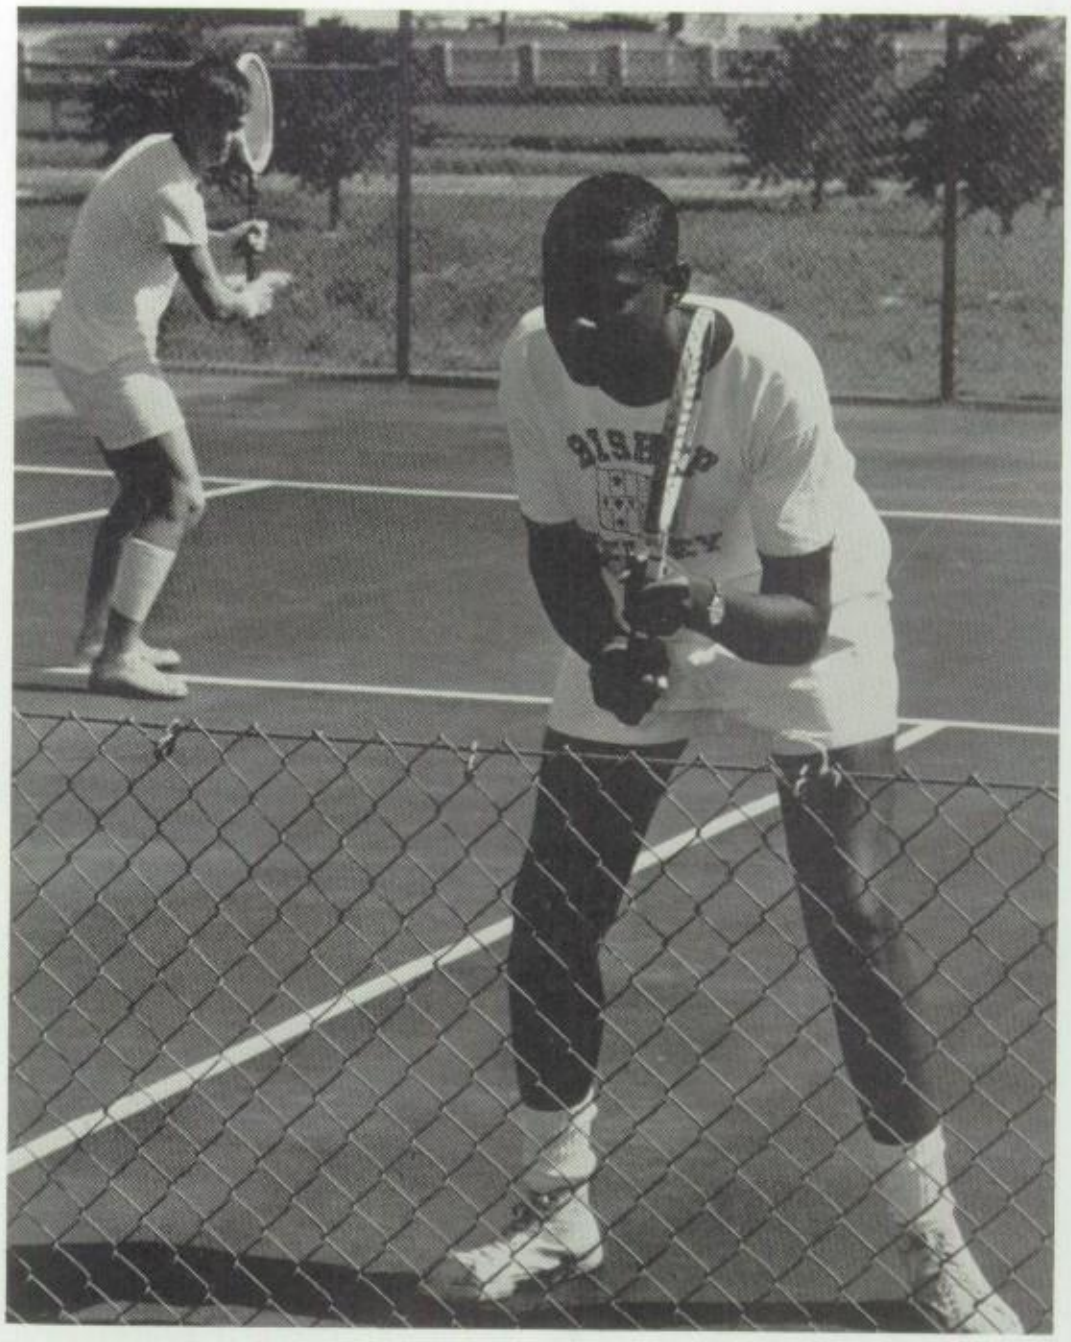
J. C. Lawson moves into qualifying position in his heat for the 100 yard dash.

Mike Edwards, Kelley's second varsity miler, shows the tremendous effort which existed on the team.

Tennis Takes Timing

Hours of hard practice enable a player to return balls without running himself ragged. Tennis quickens muscular coordination and trains timing sense.

The Comet netmen closed their season with a 2-2 record. They defeated Booker T. Washington twice by scores of 6-3 and 7-2. They were downed by Webster 5-4 and by rival Cascia Hall 6-0.



Bill Winesberry (front) and Dick Call provide valuable experience to the "racket squad."

Chess Club

From the multi-cubed square board have emerged Kelley's kings, queens, and knights of the "square table," the Bishop Kelley Chess Club.

The main purpose of the club is simply to have fun with and through chess. At weekly meetings, new members learn to play, and others practice for matches and tournaments.

Honors Convocation May 15

Sister Liberta awards the Homemaking trophy to Jenelle Smith.

Mr. Dillon hands Michael Reidy one of the two Knights of Columbus American History Awards presented at the convocation.

Mr. Philip Dessauer, representing Sigma Delta Chi, presents Ronnie Ronck an award for superior work in high school journalism.

Kelley honored its scholastic leaders in the fourth annual Honors Convocation on May 15 in the school gym.

Father Gerald Phee of St. Pius X parish opened the assembly with the celebration of Mass offered in honor of St. John Baptist De La Salle, the founder of the Christian Brothers.

Following the Mass, Key Club president Bill Spielberger welcomed students, teachers, parents, and guests to the awards assembly.

Mrs. Alberta Bolinger (above) awards the Kelley Circle Scholarships to Gayle Rafferty and Ray Dryz.

Mrs. Kreder, Kelley art teacher, announces that Mike Grady is the winner of the Tulsa Opera Poster Contest. Bill Spielberger presents Mike with the award.

Bill hands Richard McDowell his A-honor roll pin as Brother Thomas announces the winners.

Junior-Senior Prom

Highlighting the Junior-Senior Prom was the presentation of Mr. and Miss Kelley IV. Madalene Dickmann and Charles Sublett reigned over the last formal event of the season held in the Crystal Ballroom of the Mayo Hotel.

Bob Edwards, president-elect of the student council, presents Miss Kelley IV with a dozen long-stemmed red roses.

"... tonight there will be no morning star."

One hundred and seventeen couples filled the Crystal Ballroom of the Mayo Hotel at the annual Junior-Senior Prom.

Boy and Girl of the Month

Anne O'Meilia

During her two years as Pep Club checker and one as sophomore cheerleader, Anne has made many friends (or is it enemies?) around Kelley. But her best friends seem to have been made among the members of Kelley's famous wrestling team. They elected Anne Wrestling Queen for the '62-'63 season and again honored her this year as one of the attendants.

During her senior year, Anne portrayed the housekeeper of Thornfield Hall, Mrs. Fairfax, in Jane Eyre.

Davey Palm

Davey is probably best known as Kelley's "Most Valuable Trackman" and this year as the highest scoring "cinder sprinter." His unusual ability was particularly shown at the Miami meet when he scored 6 of the Comet's 7 points. At the State Catholic, he collected 6½ of the team's 32 points.

Davey was homeroom president his sophomore year and treasurer of the Lettermen's Club in his senior year.

The last section of the yearbook deals with business—school business, which, all of us agree, is certainly not seasonal. The entire school year—from September through May—finds students busy with this or that class assignment. Today is the deadline for that 2,000-word research paper. There is a chemistry test scheduled for tomorrow. Then there is an extemporaneous speech that needs to be prepared. Students are constantly challenged to give their best. Whether they are lonely freshmen entering high school or graduating seniors, there is always studying to be done.

A deep thinker—that's Mike Connelly.

Theology Integrates

Theology is the integrating force in the curriculum of Bishop Kelley High School. Religion, therefore, is considered the integrating factor in the personality of the student. The student must know his place in the universe and his final destiny. This knowledge must regulate his daily life, which should reflect a realization of his obligation to the society in which he lives and ultimately to his Creator.

Mathematics Is the Bridge

Mathematics is the bridge to many professions: science, engineering, accounting, and architecture. Those working to follow a career in business are offered business math and bookkeeping. Mathematically inclined students go on to geometry, trigonometry, and math analysis. Basic math classes make it possible for every student to be mathematically literate.

Whether dealing with knowns or unknowns, angles or triangles, mastery of skills is learned. A new vocabulary and a way of orderly reasoning rewards earnest efforts.

Scientists Explore

Science has always been a major department at Kelley. Equipped with modern laboratories, the department contributes outstanding students to colleges and universities.

For those not planning to follow a career in science, biology introduces the student to scientific analysis. Chicks, crayfish, and frogs fall victims to dissecting knives as students spleen and squeam at learning the story of the circulation of the blood.

English Stresses Communications

The English program at Kelley gives the student full development in the four areas of communication: reading, writing, speaking, and listening. The teaching of English is aimed at preparing the student vocationally and professionally. English is the focal subject of the high school curriculum, best suited for thorough personal development, as well as for essential vocational and professional training.

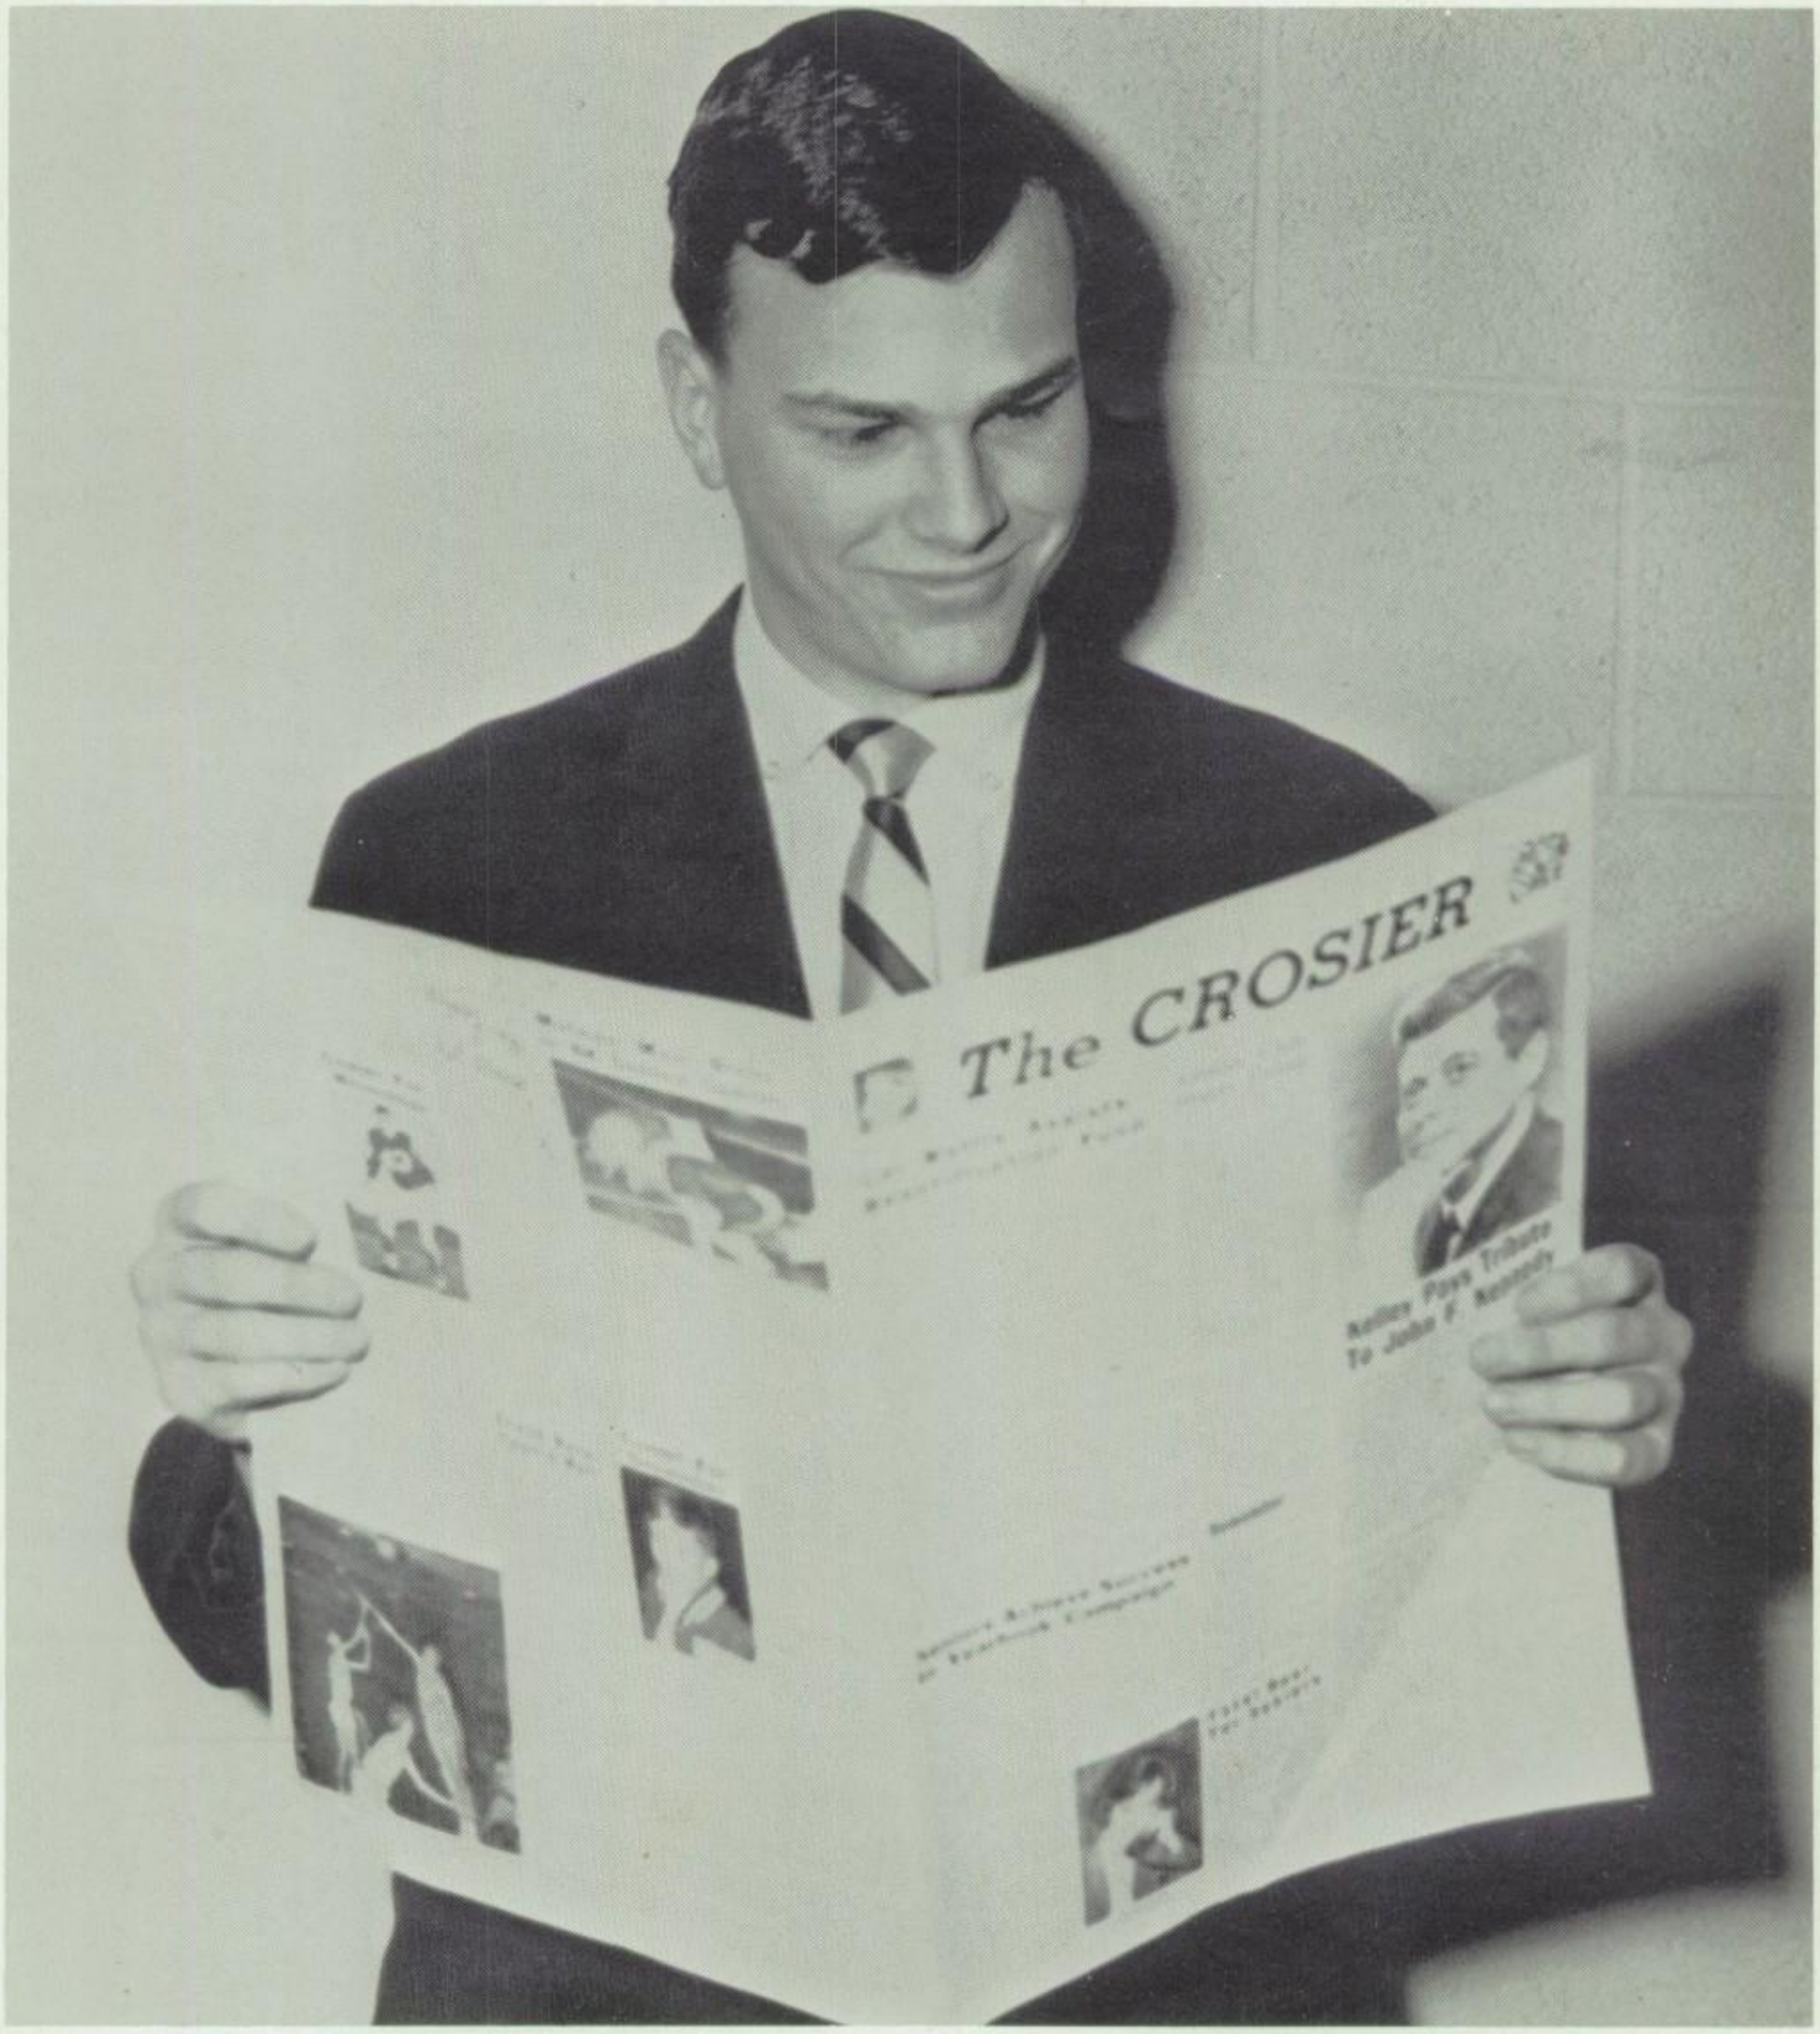
Poor Diction Involves a Penalty

The penalty may be social for poor diction is offensive to cultured, educated people. It may be an economic penalty because many jobs have good speech as an essential qualification. The person with unacceptable diction is sometimes penalized without knowing that his diction is the cause. Good diction is more than an asset. It is a necessity. The use of a tape recorder is an excellent aid in improving diction. Kelley speech students have improved their speech in skilled ear training and guided practice.

Do you like your voice, Cecilia? And your diction?



Proudly, Neal Leader is reading his news story which received a Superior rating.

Journalism Develops Accuracy

Communications is a wide field with new promises. As student journalists, staff members of The Crosier and Crest feel that they have been a significant part in making Kelley history as well as recording it. The privilege of service to others brings satisfaction for the hard work and the pressure of deadlines. Qualities of responsibility, accuracy, dependability, and self-reliance developed in journalistic endeavors are invaluable in all future pursuits.

Learning Is Earning

Offerings of the Business Department are extensive and thorough. Students interested in training for business careers are offered stenographic courses, typing and shorthand. Fashioned in Quality

Kelley girls, wearing clothes fashioned by their own hands in homemaking classes, welcome spring in style. Modeling their own creations are Elaine Schulte, Jenelle Smith, and Madaline Dickmann.

The homemaking curriculum has been built around the knowledge, appreciation, and skills necessary to build a Christian homelife. All courses—sewing, cooking, child care, family living, and personality development—contribute to the preservation of the family bond as the surest means to safeguarding Christian civilization.

Sister M. Liberta, C.D.P.
Homemaking

Ray Dryz realizes how important it is to keep in touch with the times.

History Promotes Understanding

To give facts of history with knowledge and appreciation of our heritage, institutions, and traditions is the objective of our Social Science Department. History courses attempt to foster a desire for participation in public affairs.

Training for citizenship is one of the major aims of the department, and it is important for citizens in a democracy to understand the world as it is today, how the past has brought this about, and what the future portends.

Jerry Ward and Mary Jo Dotterman—the creative image!

Today great emphasis is placed on scientific reseach and technological approaches. However, at Kelley artistic and musical skills to provide appreciation for finer things are also stressed.

Kelley Circle library volunteers: Mrs. R. E. Koogler, Mrs. G. O. Grady, Mrs. W. O. Ludke.

Official school correspondence is one of the many jobs done by Mrs. E. H. Toomey, Kelley's secretary.

Diversified Jobs Efficiently

The office volunteers from the Kelley Circle aid the work of the administration. L to R: Mrs. W. C. Causey, Mrs. John Holland, Mrs. J. C. Johnson, Mrs. J. E. Healey, Mrs. R. Killackey, Mrs. W. O. Ludke.

Kelley Circle Officers for 1963-1964: Mesdames Trainor, Enright, Bolinger (president), Siebert, Freeman, and Daugherty (director of public relations). Brother Leo and Sister Liberta are moderators of Kelley Circle.

Kelley Circle Gives Service

An organization of mothers of students, Kelley Circle works closely with the administration and faculty for the best interest of the students. The group's most outstanding project is the scholarship program, which provides pins and certificates for honor roll students and two scholarships for worthy seniors.

Pictured at the left are Mrs. Maloney and Mrs. Swick, Kelley Circle volunteers who are in charge of the health program.

Love Ann

I see your friend
used most of this paper
but I guess I can fin
enough space to say
Good luck to a real sweet friend.

Love
Kathy H

. . . Autographs . . .

Kathy, you are — real sweet with a wonderful personality. The reason you're a nut is because you're Mother's. (And not just a little bit!) Lots of luck in everything you do. Be Good!

Love ya!

Karen

Yours til the ocean needs rubber pants to keep it's bottom dry!
Ann Ackerviever

To a sweet kid.
Good luck always,
Marianne
McKenna

To a real cute girl.
Shila Rae.

Love,
Charlene Groden

To a sweet kid.
Good luck!
See ya,
Carol, Brad

Kathy:
Good luck! But don't
Try to hard(?)
Mary Goodwin

& ALWAYS
Kathy Englert

Good Luck
FOR ALWAYS!
Evelyn (the kid 3 seats ahead in homeroom)

Dear Kathy,
to be such a pain anymore.
Love,
Paula

Hootnany tryouts were fun
even though it was a flop
Susi Case

Kathy,
the longest kid

Ellen

Dear Kathy

Dear Kathy
Although I stuck
you a lot in History
I really do like
you! Love Ellen

Good Luck!
Elaine

Dear Kathy,
See ya soon
Best wishes
